President Pledges U.S. Ready To Fight Again

U. S. VETERANS DAY — All over the nation today Americans honored their war dead in solemn ceremonies. There were also parades, open houses and speeches. In Marin County, Hamilton Air Force Base put on a show for the youngsters. A flight of F-101 Voodoo jet fighters, above, streak over the base, one of the highlights of the all-day ceremonies. Below, three Cub Scouts of Mill Valley Pack 54 (from left) Jimmy Young, 8, Garrett Donhoff, 8, and Eddie Radenzel, 8, peer into the tail of a jet interceptor. The program included displays of 45 years of aircraft, parades and spectacular demonstrations by crack drill teams. Marin County American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Veterans of World War I and Disabled American Veterans took part. (Independent-Journal photos by Joe DeNarie)

Solemn JFK Speech Marks Veterans Day

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Standing bareheaded before the graves of unknown Americans who died in three great wars, President John F. Kennedy pledged today that the United States would fight again if necessary to maintain "the frontiers of freedom."

But he used the emotional occasion of Veterans Day ceremonies to pray that "there will no no veterans of any further war — not because all shall have perished but because all shall have learned to live together in peace.

Kennedy was born in 1917, the year America went to battle in World War I.

Today, 43 years from the day the great war ground to a halt, he stood in Arlington National Cemetery and said:

"In a world tormented by tension and the possibilities of conflict, we meet in a quiet commemoration of an historic day of peace.

"In an age that threatens the survival of freedom, we join together to honor those who made our freedom possible."

In front of where the president spoke were the graves of the unknowns, from the First, Second and Korean wars.

Kennedy said it is a tragic fact that the hopes surrounding the end of World War I have not been fulfilled.

He added that "some might say, therefore, that this day has lost its meaning, that the shadow of the new and deadly weapons have robbed this day of its great value, that whatever name we now give, this day, whatever flags we fly or prayers we utter, it is too late to honor those who died before, and too soon to promise the living an end to organized death."

But, he declared, Nov. 11, 1918, also signified the beginning of man's great effort in recent times to solve the prob-

Timber Interests Eye Point Reyes

By RANDALL GOULD

Big timber interest may be on the verge of acquiring valuable and up to now unbuyable redwood areas in Northern California through a complex swap involving part of the proposed Point Reyes National Seashore acreage.

Though the House of Representatives has yet to act on creation of the Point Reyes National Seashore, the itch to achieve something tangible has apparently caused the Bureau of Land Management, a division of the Department of Interior, to venture on a curious and unusual maneuver.

Involved are the Tevis Land and Livestock Co., with San Francisco offices, owner of 2,500 acres on the westerly ridge halfway between Olema and Bolinas; A. W. Sweet's Sweet Timber Co. which has an option on the property and fine redwood territory federally owned in Del Norte and Humboldt counties.

The government has previously refused a number of bids to acquire some or all of its prime redwoods aggregating perhaps as much as 9,000 acres. The government view has hitherto been that the property is "more valuable for forestry and public recreation."

Now it appears the Sweet intrests may be on the verge of putting over a deal based primarily on the pressure to get some sort of action under way toward creating the national seashore.

The Tevis company some time ago executed an option to Sweet offering the whole Tevis ranch for a total figure of $1,700,000.

This option has been transferred to the Bureau of Land Management, together with an application for exchange for federal lands of equal value.

A provision of the application says that if the lands concerned — meaning the Tevis property and apparently the federal lands in Del Norte and Humboldt counties — "do not produce an equal value exchange, revisions or additions

Nikita Warned On A-War By Johnson

McKINNEY, Tex. (UPI) — Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson told a veterans day gathering today that "neither Khrushchev nor his supporters can find a place to hide" from American bombers and missiles if they start a war.

Appealing for peace, the vice president said he wanted to make it clear that he was not rattling rockets, but merely was serving notice that the United States stood well-prepared to defend itself if attacked.

Johnson flew into McKinney by helicopter after a brief side trip to Bonham, Tex., where he visited for 15 minutes with cancer-stricken House Speaker Sam Rayburn.

McKinney, about 35 miles north of Dallas, was swelled to three times its usual population of 16,000 by visitors who came to hear Johnson. He spoke at a football stadium after a parade through the gaily-decorated city.

"The United States has today hundreds of manned intercontinental bombers capable of reaching the remotest parts of the Soviet Union," Johnson said. "Neither Khrushchev nor his supporters can find a place to hide."

"I do not speak of these things willingly, for under existing conditions a word unfortunately spoken may bring disaster, and the multiplication of words can do little to explain the situation."

"But I feel that if I keep silent, the forces of evil in this world will interpret this silence as a sign of weakness."

GEORGE KRUSZ
New chamber manager

New Chamber Head Named In San Rafael

George Krusz, for the past year manager of the domestic trade department of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, will become new manager of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce next Thursday.

Announcement of the appointment was made today by Jordan L. Martinelli Jr., chamber president, as a result of a decision of the board of directors at a special Thursday night meeting.

Krusz is 26, married and father of two daughters.

His previous work has included service with chambers of commerce in San Antonio, Tex., and in Pasadena, Los Angeles County. Krusz's father, Harry J. Krusz, is executive vice president of the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce.

Born in Tulsa, Okla., Krusz attended schools in Texas and North Carolina before taking a B.A degree in economics at Principia College in Elsha, Ill.

He served with the U.S. Marine Corps from 1957 to last year and was discharged with the rank of first lieutenant.

His educational background includes courses in organization management at Stanford and Santa Clara Universities.

State Dept. Fires 500 Employees

WASHINGTON (AP) — About 500 State Department employees will begin getting dismissal notices Wednesday. There is not enough money to pay them.

The pink slips—called "terminations" in the language of government—will become effective early next year.

The dismissals, cutting into the department's 7,200-man force here, were ordered because of a shortage of funds for salaries.

Deputy Undersecretary Roger W. Jones announced in mid-October that layoffs would be required because Congress provided about 10 million dollars less than the approximately 219 million the department hoped to have for operating purposes this fiscal year.

Officials said they didn't know exactly how many will be let out but that at least 500 will get notices between Nov. 15 and Dec. 1.

Officials said morale is suffering under the impact of the reductions and noted that many readjustments will be necessary.

One may be in the department's office of security. It is responsible for protecting the secretary of state, foreign visitors and U. S. embassies, and has the job of checking on the security of employees.

The security staff, numbering about 150 officers, will be reduced by 25.

Fallout Is Low In California

BERKELEY (UPI) — State health officials have assured Californians that the level of radiation in the atmosphere is a long way from the danger point.

The officials met yesterday at the request of Gov. Edmund G. Brown. All expressed confidence that atmospheric peril would not occur in peacetime testing.

Since the Soviet Union resumed nuclear testing in mid-September, it was reported, the average Californian has received about 1/17th of the maximum safe doses of radiation from fallout.

During the next year, officials said, the total fallout danger is not likely to reach one-third of the unsafe level.

In micro microcuries, the reading has average 10 since the tests began, with the figure reaching as high as 68. The danger point would be a continuous reading of 170 for a year.

NOVATO WINS; COLLEGE TARS SCORE UPSET

The undefeated Novato High Hornets became the undisputed 1961 Marin County Athletic League football champions last night by dumping San Rafael 22-0, and the College of Marin Tars scored a stunning upset over Shasta College at Kentfield, 28-14, to grab second spot in the Golden Valley Conference standings.

In other games yesterday Terra Linda was walloped 39-7 by Del Valle of Layafette, and Tomales was edged by Cloverdale, 20-19.

This afternoon Redwood met Marin Catholic at Kentfield, and at the same stadium tonight at 8 o'clock, Sir Francis Drake and Tamalpais high schools clash. (See details and pictures, pages 6 and 7.)

FBI, Police Hunting For Bank-Kidnap Trio

Scores of Federal Bureau of Investigation agents and San Francisco police continued the search today for three young gunmen — one disguised as a woman — who robbed a San Francisco bank of $62,693 in currency after holding two bank officers and their families overnight in a Greenbrae home.

Aiding in the search were sketches of the robbers drawn by Marin Deputy Sheriff Edmond D. Mauberret from descriptions by the victims.

San Francisco Police Chief Thomas Cahill announced all other Bay Area police had been alerted and the "full potential" of his own force thrown into the search.

The amount of the loot was announced last night after an earlier estimate of about $78,000 had been reported.

That all the loot taken yesterday was in currency was announced by the San Francisco police robbery detail.

Deputies estimated 15 FBI agents were among the numerous law enforcement officers swarming yesterday around the home of Joseph A. Finocchio at 3 Via La Cumbre in the Larkspur portion of Greenbrae after the robbery was reported.

Finocchio, manager of the Bank of America branch at Union and Webster, was held hostage at his home along with his wife Louise, and their daughter, and the wife and sons, Tom, 20, and Robert, 12, of Henry Lupori, of Millbrae, the bank's assistant cashier.

The ordeal for the bank officers and their families began Thursday night about 7:30 o'clock when the three gunmen forced their way into the Finocchio home.

While Finocchio's wife and daughter were held prisoner by one gunman, the others

Yes, Dears, It's A Dog's Life

By CARLETON WILLIAMS

Prince, a collie dog lately of New York who, since birth, has been allergic to automobile travel, heartily endorses the comforts of the jet age.

While his family, Mr. and Mrs. William Green and their four children, drove the long, tiring haul from Long Island to San Rafael last week, Prince took life easy in the plush kennels at New York's Idlewilde Airport.

There, reports are, the accommodations are slightly more luxurious than those provided for human beings. The food served the canine boarders, it is said, is far more appetizing than canned dog food served on the tail gate of a station wagon.

Green, a cost accountant in the electronics industry, got his first look at Marin County during World War II as he passed through on his way home from the South Pacific. He always intended to return, finally making the big move last week.

His wife, Margaret, and four children, Carol, Maura, Margaret and Elizabeth, looked forward to the trip, including side tours to Yosemite, Southern California and other points of interest.

Prince would have no part of the journey.

The solution, agreeable to all: Leave him at the airport and send for him when the family was settled.

A telephone call this week to Idlewilde from Buzz Kilborn's Colonial Motel, the family residence until they locate a permanent home, placed Prince on a super-jet.

Five hours later he joined his family in San Rafael.

According to Green, he scarcely speaks to the other dogs in the neighborhood.

'Coffee, tea, or milk, sir?'

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

No Clemency

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown has declined to intervene in the scheduled execution Tuesday of Richard A. Lindsey, who was convicted of the rape-murder of a 6-year-old girl last January in Kern County.

Brown, following a clemency hearing in Los Angeles yesterday, said he could find no reason for delaying the execution.

Lindsey, 31-year-old transient farm laborer from Arvin, was convicted of inducing the girl into his car at the Shafter Labor Camp. Lindsay and his wife then drove into nearby hills where he allegedly assaulted the child and strangled her. He pleaded guilty.

Bridges Makes Charge

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Harry Bridges, president of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union, has been refused permission by the U.S. State Department to go to Cuba to attend a labor convention.

Bridges had planned to attend a convention of the Cuban Labor Federation in Havana Nov. 11-13.

But the State Department ruled Bridges' trip would not be in the best interests of the United States.

Archeologists Find

VOLTERRA, Italy (AP) — Archeologists in this hill town between Pisa and Siena say they have found a Roman theater that may be one of the largest and best preserved in Italy.

Still excavating the semicircular 2,000-year-old ruin, they estimate it once seated 5,000 spectators.

South African Raids

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — South African police staged another series of raids last night. They arrested hundreds of persons, chiefly in Cape Town and Durban.

Police said these raids are designed to round up criminal elements, but persons suspected of political subversion — whites as well as non-whites—also are being taken.

Strike Averted

DETROIT (UPI) — A national strike by United Auto Workers Union employees at eight Bendix plants across the nation was averted early today when bargainers reached agreement on national economic issues.

The union, however, immediately set another strike deadline for next Friday midnight on non-economic and local plant-level issues.

Survival Caravan

BOSTON (AP) — A survival caravan, featuring a full-sized cut-out of a fallout shelter mounted on a trailer started on a nation-wide tour yesterday.

The driver, Edwin P. Fifielski, of Chicago, national commander of the American Veterans of World War II and Korea, is scheduled to drive the display to 48 state capitols.

After a luncheon with Gov. John A. Volpe and a meeting with Mayor John Collins, Fifielski expressed scorn for the "defeatists and faint-hearted who see something immoral in preparing to survive nuclear attack."

Mineo In Trouble

NEW YORK (AP) — Actor Sal Mineo laid out $50 yesterday for a speeding ticket, but he pleaded innocent on a similar summons handed him five minutes after he got the first one.

The 22-year-old actor had paid a $15 fine for speeding in October, 1960. Three convictions for speeding within an 18-month period mean automatic loss of license.

Mineo received the most recent summons as he drove on a parkway June 1. The first accused him of driving 54 miles an hour in a 40-mile zone. The second charged him with doing 53 mph.

The case growing out of the latter charge will be heard Jan. 16.

Christopher Mum

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—San Francisco Mayor George Christopher says he has not decided whether to run for lieutenant governor on the Republican ticket.

"I want an exclusive poll on this—a public sentiment survey," he said yesterday. "I want to see if all those letters I have been receiving urging me to run represent the bona fide thinking of the Republican Party."

18 Die In Air Crash

LISBON, Portugal (AP) — A military plane crashed and burned yesterday in Angola, killing the commander of the Portuguese army there and 17 other persons, officials announced.

A Lusitania news agency dispatch from Luanda, the capital, said the plane, a DC3, overshot a landing strip at Chitado, near the South African border, hit a tree and exploded. There were no survivors.

V. M. MOLOTOV
End of the road?

Molotov Is On Way To Moscow

VIENNA (UPI)—Vyacheslav M. Molotov, one of the last of the "Old Bolsheviks," rode through Czechoslovakia today on his way to Moscow and the prospect of final degradation.

Molotov, a pre-war premier of Russia who served as its foreign minister for years during and after World War II, already had been dismissed from the Communist Party in retribution for reported attempts to block Premier Nikita Khrushchev's path to power.

Well-informed sources said Molotov also had been dismissed from his latest official post as Russia's chief delegate to the International Atomic Energy Agency, which has its headquarters here.

Soviet embassy officials hustled him and his wife to the Vienna railway station last night and put them aboard the Moscow express minutes before its departure.

Two hours later, the train crossed the border into Czechoslovakia and sped on toward Moscow, where it is scheduled to arrive tomorrow.

Molotov was violently denounced by Khrushchev and other Communist leaders at the recent party convention in Moscow. His departure from Vienna was expected to mark the end of his career.

Bridge Board Approves 3-Year Insurance Policy

A new three-year multi-risk insurance policy costing more than half a million dollars in premium was approved by the Golden Gate Bridge directors yesterday.

Even at that, the $538,650 premium would have been $22,680 higher had not the chairman of the insurance committee and other members of the board not gone east to confer with agencies which set the rate.

Insurance Chairman L. E. Castner, Sonoma director, told the bridge board yesterday the new $35,000,000 policy is an increase of $4,760,000 more coverage than in the last three years. The board had approved the increase earlier.

The rate was reduced by the Inland Marine Insurance Bureau in New York from $1.6038 per $1,000 to $1.539, a cut which paid for nearly half of the premium for the added 4¾ million dollars of insurance.

At the same time, Castner recommended that the bridge directors approve a physical depreciation study of the bridge, now nearly 25 years old. The board voted for such a study by the nationwide American Appraisal Company of Milwaukee, at a cost of $4,000.

On the recommendation of Castner and the insurance committee, the bridge directors turned down offered insurance against radioactive contamination of the bridge from spillage of radioactive particles hauled across the span. The premium was $21,735 per year.

The directors were told by the general manager that traffic is continuing its steady increase. In October, 1,739,669 vehicles crossed the span, an increase of 6.2 per cent more than last October. But total revenues declined 2.6 per cent, from $398,120 a year ago to $387,821 last month, mainly because of the reduction in toll for light trucks.

Although total traffic increased 6.2 per cent, the number of vehicles paying cash toll declined 1.9 per cent, while the number of motorists using commute tickets increased a whopping 25.2 per cent. The increase in vehicles using commute tickets almost exactly balanced off the loss of revenue from decreased cash tolls. Revenue decrease for the bridge was almost entirely in the loss of income from light trucks, which pay 25 cents now. It was 50 cents last October.

Contract for the three quarter million dollar widening of the Marin end of the bridge has been let to Massman Construction Co., and work will start shortly after the first of December, the directors were told. The job is expected to take eight months.

Two state agencies have now rejected proposals that they install sanitary facilities on the Vista Point at the Marin end of the bridge, the directors were told.

A letter from state highway engineer J. C. Womack said his office had contacted the State Department of Natural Resources, which said it could not at this time make the point a roadside rest. The highway department had refused earlier to install the facilities. The Building and Operating committee of the bridge was asked to study the problem.

Novato School Unification Campaign Set

Final campaign plans for the coming Novato-San Jose School District unification election on Nov. 21 were made Thursday night by the Committee for Better Education, which favors unification.

The committee has bumper strips ready for distribution at the shopping centers this weekend.

Robert Carrow, committee chairman, reported merchants were receptive to pro-unification posters he placed in their windows. The posters read: "Let's pull Novato together."

The committee members plan to distribute 2,000 pamphlets before the election. A telephone campaign will be made to get out the vote, said Mrs. Roy Corliss, publicity chairman. Transportation and baby sitters will be available on day of election, Carrow said.

Market Plan Assailed In Mill Valley

Mill Valley's seven-member architectural advisory committee Thursday night accused United Markets of presenting plans for one type of market structure, then building another.

A year ago, said the committee, plans were approved for a new market on East Blithedale Avenue to be a square box, glass and aluminum structure." Now the building is almost completed, it is found to be "pitch-roofed and ranchy," declared the committee.

City Manager A. E. Almcrants said "Building Inspector Preston L. Canfield is just about ready to lose his job" over the situation. Almcrants said San Rafael builder William H. McDevitt "put Canfield into the situation."

McDevitt said the original plans were designed for a Mission Street location in Daly City and it was decided they were not suitable for Mill Valley. A plan for a "ranch-type building with a porch" was then designed

Chairman A. B. (Gus) Costigan of the architectural advisory committee asked McDevitt, "How is it we never saw the new drawings?"

Member Lucienne Bloch Dimitroff said: "There's nothing ranchy about that. That red and yellow is just ghastly."

Member Asa Hanamoto, landscape architect, said the plan needed more landscaping.

The matter was continued to Nov. 28 to give McDevitt time to resubmit altered plans with new colors and additional landscaping.

NEW LAGUNITAS SCHOOL CLASSROOM READY

Nobody wanted to play hooky from the Lagunitas School yesterday. Reason was that there's always charm for children about something new. And spic and span new quarters were ready at last. Move-in was successfully acomplished yesterday in the last of five new classrooms which have been under construction. These pictures show 34 curious pupils comprising the sixth grade class of Harry Roche, one photo being "from the outside in" and the other taken from where the youngsters were about to install their books and pencils. A multi-purpose room will be complete in about two weeks to finish the overall construction schedule, according to Supt. Clifford L. Frye. (Independent-Journal photos)

Supervisors Face Divided Activities

Marin County supervisors will be busy Monday but aside from their regular scheduled 2 p.m. meeting, they may be busy in divided activities.

Chairman William D. Fusselman has issued a call through County Clerk George S. Jones for a get-together at 10 a.m. in Lucas Valley to watch county and state engineers start a survey of the county hospital, with a view toward shoring it up temporarily in order that its license will be renewed Jan. 1.

But Supervisors Walter R. Castro and William Gnoss were already committeed to attend a 10 a.m. meeting of the California Aeronautics Commission in the San Rafael City Hall. Gnoss might not even be back from a northern trip. And Supervisor George Ludy is off on a three-week jaunt to Mexico.

Correspondence to be considered Monday afternoon will include a letter from Asst. Auditor Michael Mitchell, understood to embody requests for firm policy decisions on what's to be done about the hospital. Accompanying this will be a letter from Frank E. Marsh's International Industrial Institute about its offer to build a hsopital and lease beds to the county.

Business of the supervisors' session starting at 1 p.m., Tuesday, will include a 3 p.m. discussion of the rapid transit dilemma, preparatory to future public hearing on what Marin County thinks of its present exclusion from what was originally a five-county plan.

At 4 p.m. the supervisors will discuss with state highway officials the long-argued question of access to Highway 101 from the Silveira ranch north of San Rafael. Somewhere among these affairs the board is scheduled to take up once more the question of an excavation ordinance.

HUNTING

drove Finocchio to Millbrae where they picked up Lupori, his wife and two sons.

They drove the Luporis to the Finocchio home and waited until it was nearly time for the bank's time lock to open at 8 a.m.

They then took Lupori to San Francisco and forced two bank employees, Susan Romweber and Carol Hickenbothom, to help them as they cleaned out the vault.

After getting the currency, they phoned the third robber in Greenbrae to report the robbery completed. They vanished, still driving Finocchio's pink Cadillac, which was found abandoned in San Francisco about four hours later.

Lupori, who had been left trussed up in the women's room of the bank, managed to work himself free about 15 minutes after they left.

He first phoned the Finocchio home to make sure the persons held hostage were all right and then gave the alarm.

The robbery, 28th bank robbery of 1961 in San Francisco, was the largest in the history of the Bank of America and the largest and one of the boldest ever staged in San Francisco.

lems of war by international cooperation.

"That experiment continues in our present day—still imperfect, still short of its responsibilities, but it does offer a hope that some day nations can live in harmony."

Then, in the heart of his speech, he said "there is no way to maintain the frontiers of freedom without cost and commitment and risk. There is no swift and easy path to peace in our generation. No. man who witnessed the tragedies of the last war, no man who can imagine the unimaginable possibilities of the next war, can advocate war out of irritability or frustration or impatience."

But, he said, "Let no nation confuse our perserverance and patience with fear of war or unwillingness to meet our responsibilities. We cannot save ourselves by abandoning those who are associated with us, or rejecting our responsibilities.

"In the end, the only way to maintain the peace is to be prepared in the final extreme to fight for our country—and to mean it."

As a nation, he declared, "we have little capacity for deception. We can convince friend and foe alike that we are in earnest about the defense of freedom only if we are in earnest—and I can assure the world that we are."

Kennedy was the first president to visit Arlington Cemetery on Nov. 11 since Armistice Day was re-named Veterans Day by congressional Act in 1954.

HUGH TURNER ELECTED TO RADIO POST

Hugh Turner, manager of Radio Station KTIM in San Rafael, last night was elected vice-president for radio of the California Broadcaster's Assn. Elected at the organization's annual meeting to the presidency was George Whitney of San Diego. Al Constant of KRON-TV, San Francisco, was named vice-president for TV.

Mayor George Christopher was featured speaker at the dinner which concluded the broadcasters' day-long meeting.

Turner, with KTIM for 14 years, lives at 1470 Pastel Lane, Novato.

Dispute Over Point Reyes Proposal Dims

Prospects of another big dispute over Point Reyes subdevelopment at the Nov. 20 session of the Marin County Planning Commission diminished today when it became known that the petitioners have asked a six weeks continuance.

Point Reyes Land and Development Co. brought in a tentative map a week ago for a 428-acre "Wildlife Acres" development on and southwesterly of Inverness Ridge, four miles by road from the Shoreline Highway and seven miles northwest of Bolinas Village.

The subsequent request for continuance explains that more time for engineering survey is needed.

Hearings scheduled for Nov. 20 will include a proposed use permit for trailer court on Lot 51, Lagunitas Tract, in Forest Knolls. Orville Yerion is applicant.

Eugene C. Wheary has submitted a tentative map for Rolling Hills No. 2 subdivision, about three acres west of the first Rolling Hills unit on the Tiburon Peninsula.

The Northbridge Recreation Club asks a use permit to allow establishment of an outdoor recreation area next to the present community swimming pool in Northbridge, Santa Venetia.

Complaints Pour In On Furnace Co.

William G. McBride, Corte Madera building inspector, said he received more than a dozen telephone calls yesterday complaining about deals with Holland Furnace Co. of San Francisco.

McBride said the calls are coming in from throughout Marin County and some even from San Francisco. McBride has written to the State Department of Professional and Vocational Standards asking the license of Holland Furnace Co. be revoked.

His action came about after he claimed the furnace company had done a $180 job" and charged $650 to Mrs. P. A. Richards of 206 Baltimore Avenue, Corte Madera, a 79-year-old widow.

One of the telephone calls came from an elderly Corte Madera couple who had signed a contract with the Holland Furnace Co. for a new heater at a price of $609.50.

McBride said the job should have cost about $150. "That would be a high estimate," he said. The contract for this particular job was signed on Nov. 3.

McBride requested Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow to revoke the town's business license from the furnace company. Brandow said the request would have to be taken to the town council. The council next meets on Nov. 20.

The building inspector said this second Corte Madera job also did not conform to the town's uniform building code. "It was a substandard job on the reframing," he said.

Nehru Invitation

may be made so as to produce an exchange of equal value, subject, however, to approval of the Bureau of Land Management and applicant."

It is understood the Tevis option has been put in escrow awaiting a timber cruise of the possible exchange areas as a means of establishing values. Indications are that the relatively poorly timbered Tevis holdings may have acquired a new and special value because they lie within the area of the projected seashore.

Apparently it was this pending deal to which Interior Secretary Stewart Udall referred at San Francisco Airport last Wednesday during a brief pause on a trip from Tokyo to Washington, D.C. Udall said that a pending land exchange is likely to give the government its first large land holdings soon on Point Reyes in anticipation of creation of the seashore.

San Rafael attorney Bryan R. McCarthy, who represents the Point Reyes dairy interests and who dug up details of the possible timber swap in Washington, said today:

"It would appear that unless this were carefully looked at, it would be possible that the timber lands in Del Norte and Humboldt might be worth far in excess of the rather poor grade timber on the Point Reyes Peninsula."

During his San Francisco Airport stop, Secretary Udall also expressed hope the Marin County Board of Supervisors would "slow down subdividers and developers in the area" of the proposed national seashore.

A test of the supervisors' readiness to follow the interior secretary's advice appeared to be in the offing, as Point Reyes Land and Development Co. had filed with the county planning commission a tentative map for a 428-acre subdivision in that area. This was scheduled for planning commission hearing Nov. 20.

However, yesterday the planning department received a request from the developers to delay the hearing for six weeks.

Rumors have been in circulation that 8,000 acres of the Bear Valley Ranch north of the Tevis property might be handed over to the government in exchange for tax benefits to be applied to sugar interests also held by the owners. This tract reaches from Olema to the ocean.

Shelter Program Is Called 'Hoax'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The publisher of Scientific American magazine says the government-sponsored fallout shelter program is a "hoax and illusion" and psychologically dangerous because it "brings the third world war closer."

The publisher, Gerald Piel told a meeting of the Commonwealth Club of Northern California yesterday the program "gives the sanction of action to the delusion that a thermonuclear war can be fought and survived.

"It encourages statesmen to take larger risks. It disengages the citizen from vigilance over the rationality and responsibility of his elected officials."

He said a 20-megaton bomb —about a third as large as a recently tested Russian bomb —would set the entire San Francisco Bay Area ablaze, including San Francisco, Oakland, and suburban cities.

OBITUARIES

Schools To Close For Lucas Rites

San Rafael schools will be closed all day Monday for the funeral of Frank Lucas, superintendent of schools from 1954 until ill health forced his resignation last summer.

Lucas, 51, suffered the last in a number of heart attacks Thursday morning while on his way to Santa Venetia School, where he had accepted a teaching post, and died about 4 p.m. that day after being taken to a San Francisco hospital.

Friends may call at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary in San Rafael at 9 a.m. Monday. Requiem High Mass will be celebrated at 9:30 a.m. Monday at St. Raphael's Church, San Rafael. The Rosary will be recited at the mortuary at 8 p.m. tomorrow. Buriel will be private.

Lucas had returned to teaching, in mathematics and social studies to seventh and eighth grades, after resigning as superintendent June 27 after a long period of ill health.

He joined the San Rafael school system as assistant superintendent in August, 1953, and became superintendent in February, 1954. During his time as superintendent, 73 elementary school classrooms were added, including six new schools and additions to others.

Terra Linda High School was opened and additions to it begun, and a new Laurel Dell Intermediate School was started.

Lucas was born in Palo Alto and received his master's degree and doctorate at Stanford University after graduating from University of California at Berkeley. He taught mathematics in seventh and eighth grades at Hillsborough, then at Burlingame High School.

He later served as a child welfare consultant for the Alameda County superintendent's office. Just before coming to San Rafael he was schools superintendent for Pleasanton in Alameda County.

He was a member of the Commonwealth Club, California Assn. of School Administrators, past president of the Junior Statesmen Foundation, a member of Phi Delta Kappa Fraternity and of the Executive Council of the Boy Scouts of America of Marin County.

He leaves his wife, Annetta H. Lucas of 4 Broadview Court, San Rafael, a son, Charles M. Lucas of San Francisco, a daughter, Joan Lucas of Stanford University, his parents Mr. and Mrs. Mark Lucas of San Jose, and three brothers and three sisters, Thomas M. Lucas of Stockton, Lawrence A. Lucas of San Jose, George A. Lucas of San Jose, Mrs. John L. Rutledge of San Leandro, Mrs. Dietrich Otto of San Jose and Mrs. Newell Barnes of Ontario in San Bernardino County.

HERMAN COHN

Herman Cohn, San Rafael apartment house owner, died yesterday at a local hospital after a short illness.

Cohn, 59, had taken ill suddenly at his home during the night and died of an internal hemorrhage after admittance to the hospital. He resided in the apartment building he had just completed four months ago at 4 San Pedro Road, San Rafael.

With his sons Mervyn and Howard Cohn of San Rafael, he also operated loan companies in San Francisco and Vallejo.

He was a member of Doric Lodge 216, Free and Accepted Masons, the Yerba Buena Angling Club, past president of Marin Lodge B'nai B'rith and took an active interest in the Marin Jewish Community Center, San Rafael.

He is survived by his wife, Rose; two sons; one brother Phillip Chandler of San Carlos; and several grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at the Sinai Memorial Chapel, San Francisco, tomorrow at 11:30 a.m., followed by interment at Salem Memorial Park, Colma.

Family members prefer that contributions be made to Congregation Rodef Sholom Building Fund, 1618 Mission Avenue, San Rafael.

OTTO LARSEN

Private funeral services were held this morning for Otto Larsen, Larkspur, iron worker, at the Keaton Mortuary, San Rafael.

Larsen, 51, died yesterday after a long illness at the home of his nephew, Harry Larsen, 33 Bridge Road, Larkspur. He had lived there for the past four months.

A native of Norway, he had come to California in 1923. He was a member of the Iron Workers Union, San Francisco, having worked in this field for 35 years.

He is survived by his nephew and two brothers, Hakon Larsen of San Francisco and Thor Larsen of New York.

Interment was at Cypress Lawn Memorial Park, Colma.

ROSE KOHLER

Private family services will be held Monday for Mrs. Rose Kohler, 79, of 204 Redding Way, San Rafael, who died Wednesday after a lingering illness.

A native of New York, she came to San Rafael six weeks ago and was living with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Hardie. She was a member of the Order of Eastern Star in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Inurnment will be at Mt. Tamalpais Crematory in San Rafael, following private services at Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael, Monday afternoon.

MARK BLACKBURN

Mark Richard Blackburn, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Blackburn of 114 Hickory Road, Fairfax, died at the Fairfax firehouse yesterday morning after a heart seizure.

He had been suffering a heart ailment for a long time. He was rushed to the firehouse where the family doctor and firemen worked on the youngster with a resuscitator without success.

The Blackburns have two other sons, Lance and Glenn. Blackburn is a salesman for Singer Sewing Machine in San Rafael.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Tuesday at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in San Rafael. Burial will be at Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno. Friends may call at Harry M. Williams Mortuary in San Rafael from 9 a.m. tomorrow until 10 a.m. Tuesday.

Unification Re-Study Set

The Marin County Committee on School District Organization will at once begin re-study of the proposal to unify Tomales High School District and seven Sonoma and Marin elementary school districts, Asst. County Supt. Edwin L. Blackmore said today.

The State Board of Education yesterday handed the problem back to the Marin and Sonoma committees, refusing to authorize an election without more study.

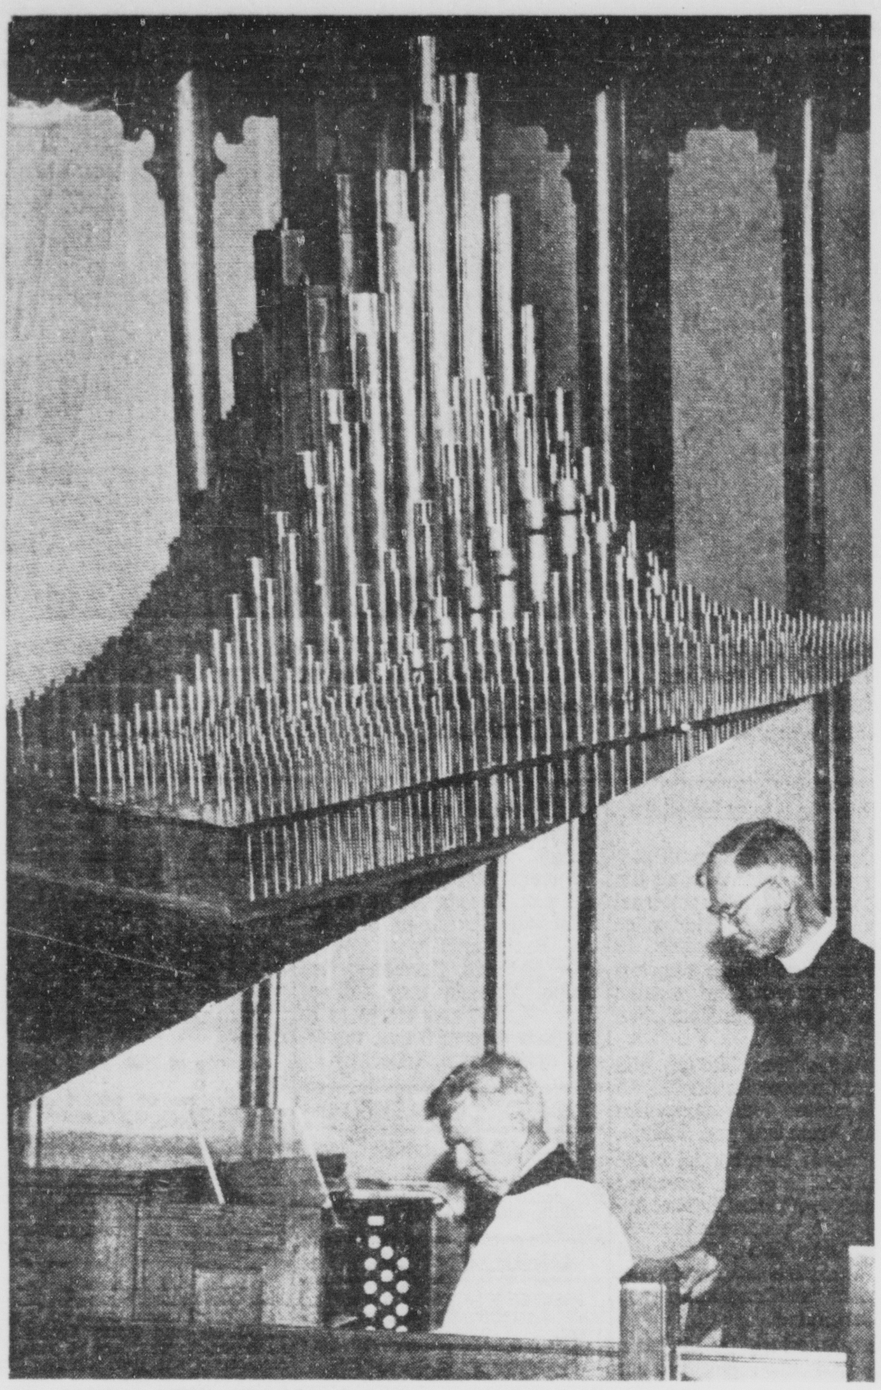

The Bolinas-Stinson Beach Unified School District has entered the picture, advocating unification along other lines to include Bolinas-Stinson Beach with West Marin District and provide a high school in the Olema-Point Reyes Station area. In discussion over the past several years, the possibility of including Lagunitas and perhaps Nicasio with such a district has been raised at various times.

ST. JOHN'S NEW ORGAN—Robert W. Hunt, organist and choirmaster at St. John's Episcopal Church in Ross plays the church's new $50,000 organ while Rector Harold E. Hallett, standing enjoys the music. A "Service of Thanksgiving" for the instrument will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. Above, in this divided photo, is a closeup of the pipes of pure alloy for special tones. (Independent-Journal photo)

NEW ORGAN

Bishop Pike Will Attend Ross Fete

Rt. Rev. James A. Pike, Episcopal Bishop of the Diocese of California, tomorrow will be the guest speaker for the "Service of Thanksgiving" for a new organ at St. John's Episcopal Church in Ross.

The 11 a.m. service will initiate public use of the $50,000 instrument, built by the Aeolian-Skinner Organ Co. of Boston, and donated to St. John's and "the Glory of God" in memory of the late Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Good by their daughter, Mrs. Harriette Gist, and son, Howard Good of Ross.

The organ is representative of the tonal qualities of organ builidng of the 18th Century, explained Robert W. Hunt, St. John's organist and choirmaster. He said that certain ranks of pipes also "embrace stops of a romantic nature for playing music of the 19th Century. In addition to fulfilling its primary function as an instrument to meet the needs of the Episcopal service it is also well suited for the performance of all periods of organ literature.

The new organ consists of four divisions called, "exposed great, enclosed great, swell and pedal." Within the main division (exposed great) is the "principal chorus," around which the rest of the instrument is tonally designed. This organ, said Hunt, is "probably the only one in a church on the West Coast with a complete chorus of pure tin pipe work." The alloy produces a tonal bouquet, both gentle and singing (normally pipes are made of tin and lead combined).

The Aeolian-Skinner Co. has built organs for Grace Cathedral in San Francisco, St. Peter and St. Paul cathedrals in Washington, D. C., and the Mormon Tabernacle in Salt Lake City, Utah, among others.

Choristers participating in tomorrow's thanksgiving service will be trebles Michael Allport, James Baubel, Ross Beaton, Thomas Bricca, Laurence Bryant, Craig Cochrane, Nobel Hamilton III, George Eustis Hill, Christopher Hoxie, Erik Innes, Andrew McClaine, John Partridge, Charles Williams, and Thomas Worth; alto Horace Y. Evans III; tenors John V. Beedle, Stephen R. Carrick Jr., and basses Robert H. Reeves, D. Kirk Davidson, and Dr. Paul Nordquist.

Marin Church Will Host Quiet Day

The Episcopal Church, Deanery of Marin County, will sponsor a Quiet Day for its members and others interested on Tuesday at St. Paul's Church, 1123 Court Street, San Rafael, announced Rev. John Riley, rector of the host parish.

Leader of the meditations will be Sister Elise of the Community of the Holy Spirit. Sister Elise is a graduate of the American Conservatory of Music, Fontainbleau. She holds Bachelor and Master of Science degrees in Music and a Master of Arts degree in education from Columbia University. Sister Elise entered her religious order in 1950 and is presently assistant headmistress of St. Hilda's Schools, New York City.

The Quiet Day will begin with Holy Communion at 10 a.m. and will end with closing prayers at 3 p.m. Those attending are asked to bring sack lunches; coffee will be provided.

Headmaster Guest

Rev. Canon David Forbes, headmaster of the Cathedral School for Boys in San Francisco, will be the guest chapel speaker Thursday at 8 a.m. at the San Rafael Military Academy.

EXCHANGE PROGRAM

Marin Unitarian Youth Will Do Benefit Work

Next Saturday the youth group of the Unitarian Church of Marin will hold a work day to raise funds for an international exchange program in which the group is involved.

All day Saturday there will be students available for odd jobs and household chores. Members of the Marin Liberal Religious Youth will wash windows, cars, dogs, babysit, garden. If the job is large, two or more students may be sent. Those wishing aid in the southern Marin area may contact Wilber Lewis, 403 Alexander, Larkspur. Those in North Marin may contact E. W. Egenberger, 301 Adrian Way, Santa Venetia.

The same day the Liberal Religious Youth Groups throughout the Bay Area are participating in similar projects. The national organization, Liberal Religious Youth, Inc., is the member organization of the International Religious Fellowship which represents the United States and Canada.

Every year the International Religious Fellowship conference is hosted in a different country. This next summer it will be held in the United States, with LRY as the host organization. Students will be coming to this conference from England, Switzerland, Holland, and many other countries. In order to defray the expenses of the European students attending the conference it is necessary for LRY to raise about $4,000.

Royal Legion To Hold Its Veterans Church Service

Tomorrow the Northern Zone of the Royal Canadian Legion will hold its annual Veterans' Day Church Service at 4 p.m. in Chapel No. 2 at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Chaplain (Lt. Col.) Leonard L. Bruce of the base, will conduct the service with British and Canadian Consuls assisting, said Harold Foot of Petaluma, chairman. He also expressed appreciation to Col. Harvey E. Henderson, base commander, for use of the chapel.

The Northern Zone of the organization includes the Bay Area and inland as far as Sacramento. A Color Guard from San Francisco Post 25 will be escorted by a drill team from Oakland Post 15.

Foot said the public and ex-British servicemen are invited.

School President Will Be Guest

President Josiah R. Bartlett of the Starr King School for the Ministry, Berkeley will be the guest speaker tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Unitarian-Universalist Church of Marin at the Tamalpais Center Women's Club in Kentfield.

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

HAFB General, Wife To Be Feted

FLORENCE DONNELLY

Gen. Conrad Necrason, new commanding general at Hamilton Air Force Base, and his wife will be honored at a barbecue dinner tomorrow night by Gen. and Mrs. Newton Longfellow at the summer home of Erna Longfellow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Franchini. It will be a reunion of friends of years ago as General Necrason was first stationed at Hamilton in 1938.

THE PARADISE DRIVE home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Ballard in Tiburon has been the setting for several recent cocktail parties and dinners. Friday they entertained about 14 guests, mostly neighbors.

Another evening they hosted a party for 16.

THREE HOSTESSES are entertaining at a luncheon Wednesday at the Meadow Club. Guests will be mostly golfers, and bridge will follow the luncheon. About 75 friends will enjoy the hospitality of Mesdames John Woodson, Porter Forcade and Paul Charron.

MRS. FREDERICK ROWLEY is in Nebraska with her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Hough (June Rowley). Doctor Hough is professor of English at the University of Nebraska. The Houghs are awaiting the birth of their fourth child. Mrs. Rowley will remain with them for several weeks after the baby is born.

Fred Rowley will entertain at a stag affair during his wife's absence. He'll stage a Polynesian party at their home in Sonora Court, Tiburon, Wednesday night. He's invited about 20 men friends for a dinner which will be followed by a color and sound motion picture, "The New State of Paradise." It will be presented by Robert Zenk for the Matson Navigation Co. Scenes in the picture were taken in Hawaii, Fiji, Australia and New Zealand.

A WELCOME HOME party was given Sunday night by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Worlund of Sleepy Hollow honoring their daughter, Sharon. The family dinner also celebrated Sharon's 23rd birthday. She and her friend, Nancy White (both girls are TWA hostesses) flew to Europe from New York and toured England, Holland, Austria and Germany.

GUESTS AT the Belvedere Ball, the St. Stephen's Guild annual dinner dance, Dec. 1, will be invited to one of five homes for cocktails at 8 p.m. preceding the dance, which will begin at 9:30.

This year's ball will be held at The Dock Restaurant in Tiburon. Mrs. Leon A. Julian, chairman, announces.

Homes open for the cocktail parties will include those of Dr. and Mrs. William Ferguson, Messrs. and Mesdames Wallace Scott, John Hoefer, Chester Vargas and Merritt Ruddock.

Invitations are in the mail now for the ball.

THE EARL BARNTS of San Rafael spent last weekend in Reno combining business with pleasure.

PROPOSING A TOAST following their marriage on Nov. 4 at St. John's Episcopal Chapel at Del Monte are Mr. and Mrs. William Anthony Lyons. The bride, the former Barbara Casalo, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Brunini of San Rafael. (McEwen photo)

Mrs. Richard Teater of San Jose was matron of honor for her sister, and Patrick Moniz of Mill Valley was best man for the bridegroom. After the ceremony a reception was given at the Hearthstone in Carmel and the couple left on a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe. They will live in Corte Madera.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Brunini of San Rafael. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Alice Moniz of Mill Valley and Frank P. Lyons of San Francisco. His brothers are Frank P. Lyons Jr., Robert Lyons and Patrick Moniz.

Corte Madera Club Slates Apron Luncheon

On November 28 at 12:30 p.m. the Corte Madera Women's Improvement Club will hold its traditional Apron Luncheon. Admission to the luncheon will be an apron. There will be a silent auction at which each one will model their own apron. Auctioneer for the event will be Mrs. Harvey Warne.

Prizes will be awarded for the prettiest, the most original and the most practical apron. The proceeds will go to the club's philanthropic work.

Chairman for the affair will be Mrs. Frank Wessel assisted by Mesdames Stanley Schlobohm, Ernest McCutchen and John Conkle. In charge of decorations will be Mesdames Eugene Schlueter and Jack Houser.

The Garden Section of the Corte Madera Club will have a garden planting of bulbs at its Nov. 21 meeting at noon.

The Restrained Look

The strictly tailored look for pint-sized fashion plates is yielding to a decorum expressed through crisp pinafores, restrained trimmings, little lady silhouettes and near-the-face flatery. The pinafore look takes a variety of interpretations, from the classic crisp white apron over a darker dress to the reverse twist of print covering a dress of solid color.

Unique Art Is Pemberton's Topic In Outdoor Art Club Address

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Dr. William Pemberton, Mill Valley psychologist, informed and entertained members of Mill Valley's Outdoor Art Club with a speech and demonstration on "A Semantic Look at Art" at Thursday's home day meeting following a luncheon.

After explaining that most people vary in their acceptance of the unique from being attracted by that which is a little different to being completely indifferent to that which is too different, he said that artists have a wide appreciation of the unique.

Failing to find meaning in the uniqueness of their work, observers assume it has none, not realizing that "meanings or messages of artists are not in the messages or art works" but in the observers themselves.

"When you see a piece of art and see beauty in the picture," Dr. Pemberton declared, "you are out of date because qualities are not in things. Qualities are labels." This is comparable to the color red not being in an object but in the cones of the beholders' eyes.

To illustrate his point the speaker distributed tiny pieces of chemically treated paper to each person present, requesting her to chew it. To those who reported a definite taste in the paper he said, "if you say taste is in the paper, you are obsolete."

He then displayed large placards of the Rorschach ink blots used in psychiatric diagnosis. To illustrate further the point of meanings existing in individuals he asked the audience to call out what each blot looked like. Responses varied widely. He concluded this part of his talk with a brief outline of how the ink blot test reveals information about those to whom it is administered.

Before his discussion of art, Dr. Pemberton touched briefly on the "three great explosions today"—the nuclear, of interest to the semanticist, he said, in that both Russia and the United States claim to be making tests in the interests of mankind — the population, in that both Catholics and protestants claim God-given rights in connection with birth—and the information, in which men's minds are being cluttered with the flood of trivia from mass media of communication.

After answering several questions on such subjects as "nuclear anxiety" Dr. Pemberton concluded with his own "pledge of allegiance":

"I pledge allegiance to all mankind and to the principles which will unite them in one world, indivisible, with respect and understanding for all."

During the brief business meeting conducted before the program by president Mrs. Alvin Baukol new members welcomed were Mesdames Ernest R. Kunney, John A. Lennon and Earl F. Reinke.

Mrs. Roger Verran and Mrs. A. A. Hemmerling provided flowers, and luncheon chairman Mrs. Harold Jolley was assisted by Mesdames Jay Chilton, D. Murray Hammond, James Long, John Richardson, John Wyand and Pieter Van Dalen.

Marinites Attend Red Cross Meet

Attending the governor's conference on youth for the community at Long Beach on Tuesday and Wednesday will be Mrs. W. C. Detsch, director of office of educational relations for Marin Red Cross Chapter, Pam Dana and Sally Good, both active members of high school Red Cross, and Daryl Hopkins, chairman of the office of educational relations.

As one of 37 "teaching teams" chosen from the state to present youth service projects to the 1,200 conference delegates, the Marin group will describe and demonstrate community service projects organized and implemented through Marin high school Red Cross—namely, volunteer work with physically handicapped, the mentally retarded and the aged which is carried on at Sonoma State Hospital, Marin Rehabilitation Hospital, Center Medical, Marindale School and Lucas Valley.

"Red Cross Teenaiders" is the name chosen by the young people to describe those working on these projects.

Harry Mathias of Redwood has produced a ten-minute movie of the Marin Aid to Retarded Children summer program and has made numerous still photos for the team to use in their presentation.

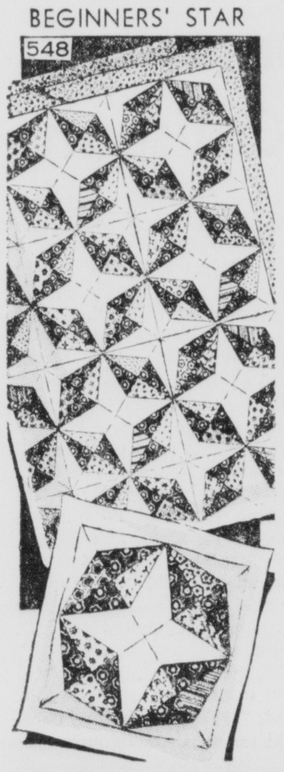

Nineteen display posters have been constructed by Dominican students under the direction of Maria Fasal and Betty Jo Brigante, and Bob Wishard of Marin Catholic has worked on brochures.

Pam Dana of Larkspur is a Redwood High senior and has served as a Gray Lady at Sonoma and as a motor service driver. She is chairman of Red Cross at Redwood and vice chairman of the high school Red Cross county council.

Sally Good, a junior at San Rafael High, has worked for four years with MARC summer program, and as a Gray Lady at Sonoma. She is presently serving in this capacity at Hamilton Air Force Base Hospital and is also a member of the council.

Both girls have totals of more than 600 hours of volunteer service.

New Racoon Branch Announces Officers

The newly formed Racoon Branch of Marin General Hospital Auxiliary elected its first set of officers at its luncheon meeting this week at the Dock in Tiburon. The branch is the fourth auxiliary group that serves as the fund-raising unit for the hospital.

Officers elected were Mrs. Fulton Wilkins of Del Mar, president; Mrs. James W. Clark of Belvedere, vice president; Mrs. Joseph Royer of Belvedere, secretary; and Mrs. Thomas Behrens of Tiburon, treasurer. Mrs. Richard Sims, senior auxiliary member, will act as liaison representative.

To add as individual touch to the group a raccoon coat was chosen as insignia. It will be worn alternately by various members at forthcoming fund-raising events, first of which will be a benefit luncheon and fashion show at the Dock Dec. 4.

Twenty-seven new members, all residents of the Belvedere-Tiburon peninsula, attended the first formal meeting to hear an address of welcome by Mrs. Harrison McNear Leppo, president of the senior group, and list of auxiliary projects by Mrs. Fred Drexler, chairman of new branches for the senior group.

Shoe Saving

When shoes become soaked in a shower, stuff them with paper and allow them to dry for several days—away from heat. Then remove mud from leather by sponging with thick dry soap or detergent suds, using a minimum of water. Rinse-wipe with a damp cloth and allow to dry.

It's All Over --- Novato Crushes San Rafael For Title

COACH OF CHAMPIONS — Marlin Olsen, head coach of the Novato High Hornets, gets the traditional honor last night after his undefeated team captured the 1961 Marin County Athletic League football championship by crunching the San Rafael Bulldogs, 22-0. Hoisting Olsen are quarterback Don Scribner (42), halfback Ron Green (11) and guard George Couch (52). (Jim Kean photos)

NOVATO CELEBRATION — Rooters in the San Rafael stadium, where there was standing room only, celebrate as final gun sounds to give the victory to the Hornets as well as the undisputed MCAL title.

HORNETS CHAMPIONS

Mighty Mac, Cook Spark 22-0 Game

By PAUL MILLER

The black knights of Novato High—led by senior halfback Dennis McCormick — swept into San Rafael last night, took their gold to count of 22-0 from the Bulldogs, and went north again, undefeated champions of the 1961 Marin County Athletic League.

"Mighty Mac" picked up two of the Hornets' three touchdowns, seven of his team's 10 first downs, and racked up a total of 108 yards in total rushing — all in one evening's work. In addition, he was outstanding on defensive play and pushed his colleagues in spirited gesture for four quarters.

The victory — witnessed by a jammed stadium—gave coach Marlin Olsen's Hornet's a 5-0 won-loss record in league play and an 8-1 record for the season. Their closest rivals were the Sir Francis Drake Pirates with a 3-1 count to date.

Hornet tackle John Cook's leadership in both the offensive and defensive line was reminiscent of the old days of what were called "60-minute men." Cook was also responsible for two conversions off his boot and for two additional points on a safety.

WELL CALLED GAME

Hornet quarterback Don Scribner must be credited with a well called game. He saw that McCormick was hot, fed him the leather and ordered him into the right holes. He saw that the Hornet passing game last night was not as successful as good old gravel crunching so he stayed to mother earth. He gambled for some first downs with bookie precision but also punted at the right times. Twice he could have scored on quarterback sneaks, but instead gave the glory to the backs who had worked the ball to the goal area on handoffs from 2 and 7 yards out, in the first and fourth periods, respectively.

Coach Bob Muster's troops gave it all they had to the last gun, but were unable to get their offensive attack, except for some aerial advances, underway. They also suffered from bad hikes, fumbles, and penalties.

IRON DEFENSE

Along with facing the iron defensive wall of Novato, all this resulted in the Bulldogs getting no closer than 36 yards of the Hornet goalline. Standouts in defensive play for the Bulldogs, however, were tackle Chris Yaeger, guard Jack Clark and center Denis Nickel, and quarterback Jack Sovereign, who played shallow defensive back and stopped a number of end sweeps by the Hornets.

Offensive backs Mike Shafer on end runs, and Jack Haney on punt returns did a good job.

Novato's first tally came midway in the first period. McCormick in four successive plays had brought the pigskin from the San Rafael 35 to the 18. Hornet halfback Craig Bond carried for nine more and McCormick drove for five on the next play, then went in with a hand off from Scribner over left guard for six. Cook's PAT kick attempt was blocked.

At the outset of the next quarter San Rafael, after two completed passes by Sovereign to end Bruce McPhail and some yardage pickups by fullback Shafer, were in a second and four situation at the Novato 36, but fumbled and Joe Colfer of Novato recovered. About four minutes later San Rafael after four downs was on its own 12-yard line. Sovereign, in a punt formation, got a bad hike that sailed over his head and into the endzone. He tried desperately to swing out to spare a safety, but Cook was on him like a leopard, making the score 8-0.

SCORING DRIVE

McCormick received the kickoff and returned it to the San Rafael 40. Then he, Bond, and halfback Ron Webster worked the leather to the Bulldog four. From there Mac rode in on the next play on the shirt tail of 210-pound tackle Art Cherry for a TD. Cook booted the PAT. An intercepted pass of Sovereign's in the final seconds of the half by Hornet John Miller kept the Bulldogs from threatening.

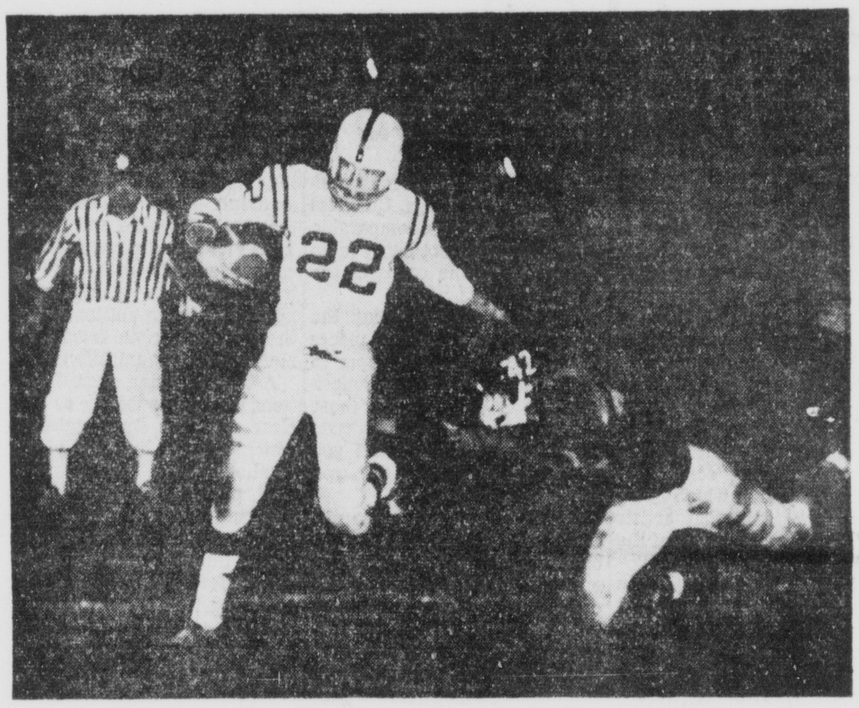

In the final period, the Bulldogs held Novato to four downs, forced them to kick on a fourth down situation from the San Rafael 43. Miller was rushed, but got away a fine kick. In four more downs Sovereign punted from his own 14, but on Novato's first down at the Bulldog 39, San Rafael tackle Tav McTavish recovered a Hornet fumble. The Bulldogs looked as if they were going to move to break the shutout. Sovereign completed a 10 yarder on a beautiful catch by halfback Alan Finley at the 29, but the next pass play was intercepted by Hornet Cliff Pierce's diving catch at the 39. It initiated another Hornet march by McCormick and Scribner. Mac went for a 20-yard pickup on a superbly executed fake pitch-out play that envolved a fine effort on the part of every Novato player and put Mac through a left tackle hole to the San Rafael 33. A Bulldog penalty brought the Hornets, without any work, to the seven, from where Bond on a reverse from Scribner ran around right end for the standup score.

Two minutes later, Hornet coach Olsen and his assistant John Panagakis were deservedly carried off the field in triumph.

It was their team's fifth shutout of the season.

VOODISM — Novato Hornet mascot (Susan Stafford) demonstrates symbolic hanging of a bulldog who after gazing at the Hornet's face looks more scared than hung.

PUNT RETURN — Jack Haney (22), San Rafael halfback is about to be dropped by tackling Novato safety and offensive quarterback Don Scribner (42) after Haney returned a Hornet fourth down punt from about the San Rafael five to the 26.

Terra Linda Clobbered In Season Finale, 39-7

High riding Terra Linda High suffered its first defeat in the last game of the season yesterday, and it was a whopper — 39-7.

A powerhouse junior varsity team from Lafayette called Del Valle threw an alloy forward wall against the Trojans and stacked up 26 points by the half.

Trojan quarterback Dick Schultze kept it from being a shutout when he connected on a 35 yard aerial to Dick Seymone for six in the third period. Jack Edwards conversion boot was good for the extra point.

Del Valle knocked off six more points after the halftime and seven more in the final quarter.

The Lafayette team had scouted Terra Linda thoroughly, was big, fast and well organized.

One Marin observer commented: "De Valle would give this whole league (Marin County Athletic League) fits."

Mrs. Boardman Is Lady Day Winner

Mrs. Helen Boardman won the low net with a 67 yesterday at the Marin Golf and Country Club's ladies guest day.

Mrs. Aubrey Babson and Mrs. Rich Flower both tied for the low gross score with 89s. The hole-in-one competition was grabbed by Mrs. Scott Graham at 47 inches.

Other low scorers were:

Class A — Mrs. William Sparrow, 94-20—74; Mrs. Robert Peterzon, 94-17—77; Mrs. Flower, 89-11—78; Mrs. Babson, 89-10—79.

Class B — Mrs. Ed Abramson, 99-24—75; Mrs. Robert Vannucci, 98-21—77; Mrs. Gordon Wardlaw, 101-21—80; Mrs. Mark Smith, 105-23—82.

Class C — Mrs. Scott Graham, 99-25—74; Mrs. William Wieland, 104-28—76; Mrs. Leo Ross, 108-28—80 and Mrs. Harold Burnell, 107-27—80; Mrs. Alvin Lewis, 107-25—82.

Seals And Blades Clash In S.F. Tonight

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The San Francisco Seals and the Los Angeles Blades, both striving to remain out of fourth place in the Southern Division of the Western Hockey League, clash in the Sports Arena tonight.

The Blades have a record of three wins and nine losses. The Seals are 3-10.

NITSCHKE GETS PASS TO PLAY FOR PACKERS

FT. LEWIS, Wash. (UPI) — PFC Ray Nitschke of the 32nd Division, better known as a linebacker for the Green Bay Packers of the National Football League, has been given a pass and will play for the Packers Sunday against the Chicago Bears, division headquarters said today.

A spokesman for the division said Nitschke will be able to play for the Packers for the rest of the season "unless a game conflicts with his normal Army duties." Nitschke is attached to the division's quartermaster company.

Nitschke was called to active duty earlier this fall along with the rest of the 32nd Division. The division was placed on active status as a part of the nation's military buildup over the Berlin crisis.

49ers, Rams Meet Tomorrow; 50,000 Expected At Coliseum

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Rams, who have not beaten San Francisco in a National Football League game since 1958, will have to jam the 49ers' shotgun attack tomorrow if they are to break the string.

Coach Red Hickey sent word from San Francisco that he will again have three trigger men ready to ride the shotgun in Memorial Coliseum.

This means that John Brodie, Bill Kilmer and Bobby Waters will alternate at quarterback, running and passing from the Hickey-revived version of the short punt formation.

The Rams failed miserably to throttle the weapon in the first league encounter in San Francisco Oct. 8. They were beaten 35-0, with Kilmer, erstwhile local hero at UCLA, doing most of the damage.

Coach Bob Waterfield said the Rams will try new defensive measures. He frankly admitted anything will be an improvement over the basic, loose 4-man defensive line tried the first time.

Les Richter, the Rams' 235-pound linebacker and captain, is ready to play after a week away with injuries.

More than 50,000 are expected for the always lively, usually bitter renewal of hostilites between the teams. The kickoff: 1:35 PST.

After an impressive start this season, San Francisco fired blanks against the Chicago Bears and Pittsburgh and were lucky to gain a 20-20 tie last week with Detroit.

The Rams ended a dismal four-game losing streak, defeating Minnesota, 31-17. Fullbacks Joe Marconi and Tom Wilson, who have ridden the bench most of the year, supplied a potent fourth quarter punch to win the game.

How much action either will see Sunday remains to be seen. Waterfield named his usual starting backfield — quarterback Frank Ryan, Jon Arnett, Dick Bass and Ollie Matson.

Brodie probably will lead off for the 49ers, along with Abe Woodson, R. C. Owens and J. D. Smith.

Hickey also indicated he will rely heavily on still another of his "alphabetical soup" backfield talent, C. R. Roberts.

Unbeaten Alongi Faces Big Test At Garden Tonight

NEW YORK (AP)—Tony Alongi, an unbeaten young heavyweight from Hollywood, Fla., with 27 victories, faces his most important test tonight when he takes on George Logan of Boise, Idaho, at Madison Square Garden.

Alongi, 22, a rangy 6-4, has been brought along slowly under the guidance of Charlies Goldman, Rocky Marciano's old trainer. Young Tony has knocked out 16 opponents.

Logan, 25, is known hereabouts for three losing fights with Tom McNeeley, the Bostonian who challenges Floyd Patterson for the title Dec. 4 in Toronto. Logan's record is 21-5-1.

The fight will be seen on network ABC television starting at 10 p.m. (EST).

Marin Stuns Shasta 28-14 In Big Homecoming Upset

Tars Second In Red Hot League Race

By WILLIAM KRELLE

The College of Marin Tars won their homecoming game with a stunning 28-14 upset over the Shasta Knights in last nights game at Kentfield and are now tied for second place in the Golden Valley Conference.

Dick Read's Tars proved that they were really out to win as they struck early and gave a solid effort through the whole game. In the past games this season Marin has been a second half team but, this contest proved different.

One of the largest crowds of the season was gathered on the Marin side of the stadium to cheer the Tars on to victory.

Shasta went into the game with a league record of two wins and only one defeat and were hot on the tail of league leading Sierra College (3-1). Marin now has a 2 and 2 record in conference play to share second place with Shasta, Napa and Yuba in one of the closest GVC races in many years.

Marin, which has been hampered all season by injuries and lately by ineligibility, had its squad cut from 39 to 25 players. Shasta brought 33 players into the Tars' home and was expected to have distinct speed and manpower advantage.

This advantage did not scare an alert Marin defensive team as the Tars picked off three Knight passes and forced Shasta to lose the ball four times as result of fourth down gambles with only a few yards to go each time.

The offense also looked good as Blum hit his receivers well and the backs ran hard as the Marin line blocked well to open up the big Shasta defensive wall.

MARIN MARCHED

Marin received the opening kickoff and marched from its own 21 to the Shasta 17. On the next play Blum passed to halfback Ron Cole for the game's first touchdown. The conversion kick by Frank Lopez was good, but a penalty against the Tars brought the ball back to the seven where an attempted run was stopped. With less than six minutes gone in the first quarter Marin led 6-0.

Early in the second period Marin halted a Shasta drive on the Tar 29. With a well balanced attack, directed by Blum, the Tars moved the ball to the Knights' 11. On a first down play Blum handed off to Cole who carried around right end for Marin's second score. Blum passed to end Darrel Dietrich for the two-point conversion and Marin led 14-0.

Shasta finally scored on a pass to Leon Rusic for a well executed 76-yard touchdown. The extra point try was unsuccessful as Marin still led 14-6.

SCORING DRIVE

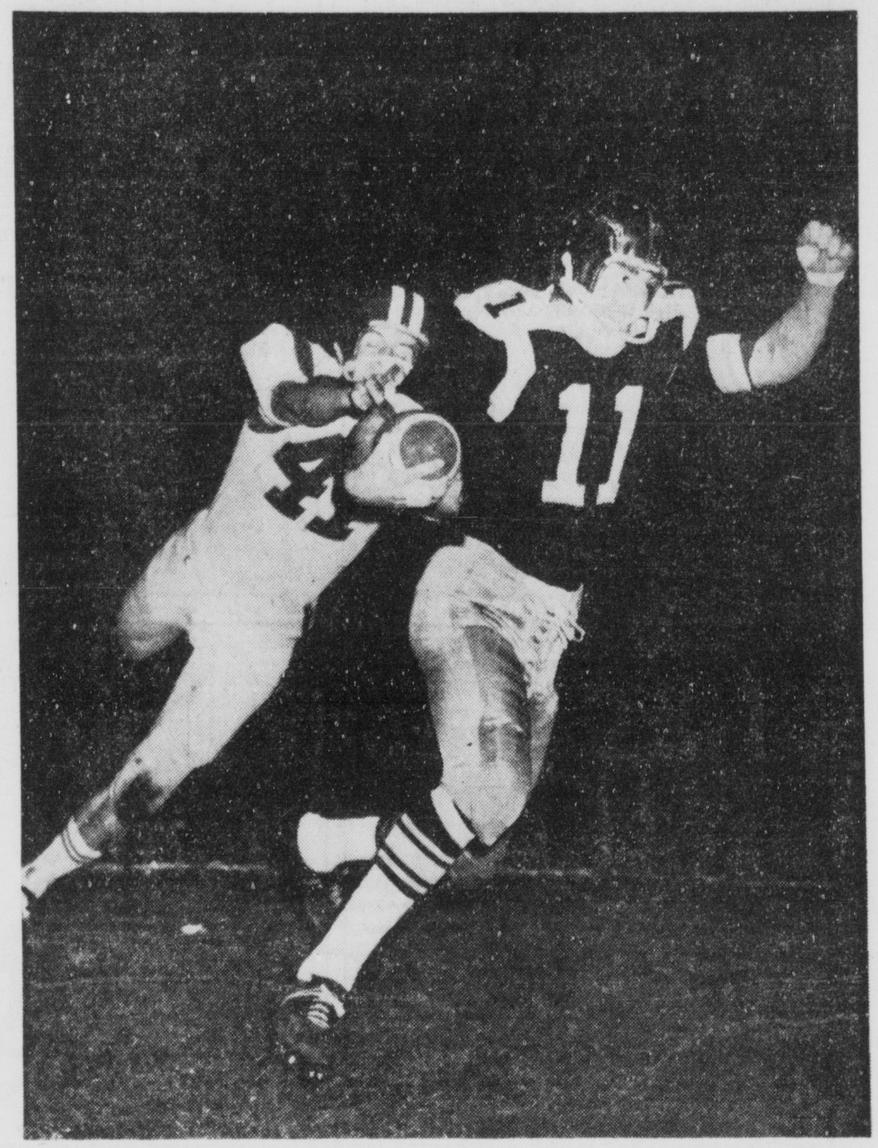

The Mariners began another scoring drive as Cole returned the Knights' kickoff to the Tar 44. Eight plays later, with the ball moved to the Shasta 22, Blum threw a screen pass to fullback Jim Lonsford who ripped off down the sideline for another Tar touchdown. The conversion attempt was unsuccessful as Marin now led 20-6.

Late in the third quarter Shasta got on the scoreboard again. Grant ran four yards around end for the touchdown. Grant also ran over the conversion for the two points. With only three minutes left in the third quarter Marin's lead was narrowed to six points, 20-14.

The Tars returned the kickoff to their own 47, and after one running play had gained nine yards to the Shasta 44, Blum threw long to Cole for the touchdown. The conversion was driven over by halfback Jim Fisher as Marin led 28-14.

In the final period neither team could get a scoring drive going. Marin had intercepted a Knight pass as the gun sounded to end the game.

Tar coach Read, blushing with pride for his players, said it was the best "offensive effort of the year."

LOPING LOPEZ — Frank Lopez, College of Marin quarterback is off on a pickup around right end in the first quarter of game with Shasta. Here Knight fullback Henry Holmes attempts the tackle.

Runnerup Spot At Stake In Drake-Tam Contest Tonight

The Sir Francis Drake Pirates and the Tamalpais Indians are going to end the 1961 Marin County Athletic League season in a real sweat shop tonight at Kentfield.

The game will be the last one in the 1961 loop, and is expected to be a tougher affair than each team anticipated at the outset of the season. In addition, it—as all the Tam School District contests—will be a good old rivalry game.

Both teams were respected at the beginning of the season but neither were considered crack outfits. But now Drake, which until last night—was in contention with Novato for the MCAL crown, will be fighting to hold position for runner-up spot. And the Indians on the other hand, will be after a share of that second place cup.

DRAKE SHARP

Drake is as sharp as ever, and Tamalpais, plagued by an over abundance of injuries, is just now getting its key players, recently off the injured list, back in the grind of it all. Head Pirate coach Bob Franceschini is of course aware that his club is at its peak and has been for a month. But he also knows that the Indians are now too at the summit, and it's going to be a real war tonight.

Franceschini said the Pirates are going to keep tabs on Indian halfback Warren Domino. "We feel we can contain the other backs with our own speed if they try to break loose, but it won't be so assured as far as Domino is concerned." Another brave Drake had better watch is Paul Farren, a regular guard who will start at fullback.

The Hub coach said his backs, Rich Bottini and Tom Kolbe, are healthy as is the rest of the squad (those not on the early injury list). Both backs had a good week of practice and looked good in scrimmages.

TOUGH GAME

Head Tam coach Jim Hanretty said it's going to be the Indians' "toughest league game" except for the Novato contest. In addition, the Mill Valley mentor feels it will be "a real test" for his defensive unit. He expressed respect for Drake's shifty, speedy back, Bottini, and for the speed of the Pirate outfit in general.

Hanretty figured it would be restricted mostly to a ground battle. "Both our passing and theirs have been sputtering this season," he said.

The Indians will be minus end Steve Long, and guard Mickey Johnson is a doubtful starter because of illness this week. Junior varsity end Jim Durbin will replace Long.

The only change over last week's starting lineup for the Pirates will be at halfback. This week Tom Tanzi will get the nod in place of Jim Sannar.

Other Drake starters: quarterback Hamish Tyler, halfback Bottini, fullback Kolbe, ends Laddie Richardson and Larry Kline, guards Lloyd Stasiowski and Jim Moreno, tackles Ben Ongaro and Scott Kelly and center Don O'Brien.

Tam starters: quarterback Tex Hamilton, halfbacks Domino and Rich Hamilton, fullback Paul Farren, ends Brian Laurie and Art Foster, tackles Elmer Collett and Greg Taylor, guards Mickey Johnston (or possibly Ted and Fred Fellows) and center Pete Hindley.

Tennis Gets Better

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—When Pete Lyman was a member of the 1947 University of Rochester tennis team, he wasn't good enough to win a letter.

His game improved rapidly, however, after he was graduated. He now is a ranking amateur in the Northeast and is consistently the Rochester city men's champion.

He became the University of Rochester tennis coach six seasons ago, and his teams have posted a composite 41-11 record. The 1961 team had an 8-0 record, the first unbeaten tennis team since the university added tennis to its athletic program in 1932.

Raiders Try To Knock Titans Out Of AFL Race

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

New York's Titans, still in the thick of the race for the Eastern Division championship, meet Oakland at New York tonight to get a busy and vital weekend on the way in the American Football League.

The Titans can hang close if they beat the Raiders because they are only one game out of first place at the present time.

The Eastern Division leaders —Boston and Houston — clash at Houston tomorrow afternoon in one of the big battles of the season. Boston is only a half-game to the good over Houston, the defending champion.

The Western Division has two important games Sunday. The No. 1 contest matches San Diego, unbeaten leader of the division, with Denver.

San Diego can take the Western Division championship by whipping the six-time losers or it can lose and still capture the title in the event second-place Dallas loses to Buffalo at Dallas.

Oakland is running last in the Western Division but the Raiders have just won a game —they beat Buffalo 31-22 last Sunday. With Tom Flores doing the throwing, the Raiders just might wind up New York's hopes of figuring in the championship. While the Titans are now in fair shape to make a run for it, a loss would just about spell finis to their ambitions since Boston and Houston are in such close contention for first place.

Where Did Saints' Magic Go? Have Lost 4 In Row

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The San Francisco Saints, who opened the American Basketball League season with two victories and now have lost four of their last five games, have a week to figure out where the magic went.

The Cleveland Pipers, with Roger Taylor setting the pace, beat the Saints 97-88 last night at the Cow Palace. The Saints don't play again until Friday night at Chicago.

Coach Phil Woolpert has plenty of work planned for the San Franciscans, who disappointed a crowd of 7,192. It was the largest house they've played before.

Taylor's 19 points led a well balanced Cleveland attack. The Pipers led by six at the quarter and 10 at halftime. The visitors were 13 in front after three quarters and jumped out to a 17-point lead in the final period.

Then the Saints finally got hot and zoomed back to within three points of Cleveland. But Taylor sank two clutch baskets at that point and, for the Saint fans, it was all over.

It Will Be Called Dodger Stadium

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The $16 million stadium of the Los Angeles Dodgers now nearing completion in the Chavez Ravine will be known as—what else?—Dodger Stadium.

The Dodgers announced yesterday, and said they had given serious consideration to many other suggestions.

One problem: The Los Angeles Angels of the American League will lease the stadium, and the Dodgers aren't certain the Angeles will acknowledge the park as Dodger Stadium.

Rose Bowl Bid Could Go To 1 Of 30 Teams

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The Big Five has a list of 30 names under consideration for a Rose Bowl bid, according to Tom Hamilton, executive director of the AAWU.

He said yesterday that he already has sent out "feelers" to several teams to see if they would be interested in playing in the Pasadena oval.

"But we definitely have made no commitment to any one team and certainly wouldn't do so this early in the campaign," he added.

"We inaugurated a policy more than a year ago of looking for the best team, whether it was in the Big Ten or some other section of the country," he explained. "The Big Ten, at that time, did not want to sign an agreement."

The Big Ten teams are eligible still to participate in the Rose Bowl, and some of the clubs want to make the trip. But Ohio State and Minnesota leading the conference, are considered doubtful starters.

"Our policy is to choose an outstanding team from any part of the nation," he said.

Among teams outside the Big Ten reported under consideration are Alabama and Georgia Tech. High-ranked clubs such as Mississippi and Louisiana State are out of contention because of their segregation policies.

UCLA's Topic Of Scorn Wins Games

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The critics had best take another look at the UCLA aerial arm, the topic of scorn all season.

The Bruins hardly put on an aerial circus as they defeated Texas Christian 28-7 last night but their main throwers, tailbacks Bobby Smith and Mike Haffner, had a perfect evening.

Throwing only in strategic situations, Smith completed 3-for-3 for 90 yards, including one for 63 yards to Kermit Alexander for the first UCLA touchdown. Haffner was 2-for-2 for 40 yards.

On the ground, UCLA gained 206 yards. Haffner accounted for 83 in 10 carries and Smith 54 in 13.

TCU Coach Abe Martin, whose team tied Ohio State 7-7. (UCLA lost to the Buckeyes 13-3), observed:

"I always thought the Bruins were the equal of Ohio State and I still do."

What about the Bruins' passing?

Said Martin: "We didn't expect the Bruins to pass as much as they did."

Invite TWO Outside Teams To Rose Bowl, Big 5 Advised

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — From out of Milwaukee yesterday came fighting words for west coast football fans.

Sports editor Lloyd Larson of the Milwaukee Sentinel said it might be well for the Athletic Association of Western Universities to invite two outside teams to play in the Rose Bowl.

Larson cited the records of the Big Five and said such action might be "in the best interests of the Rose Bowl program."

Larson made his remarks in a column concerning the Big Five's tie-up with the Big Ten in the Rose Bowl.

He said the AAWU is slyly telling Ohio State and Minnesota not to build up hopes too high because "the coast group can get along without them and the rest of the Big Ten very well."

Larson said the conference is "undoubtedly miffed" because the Big Ten refused to renew its Rose Bowl pact last year and "will do so now by only a bare majority vote.

"Giving anybody the back of the hand is a questionable gesture on the part of teams with records like those in the Big Five to date," he said.

UCLA and Southern California, the two top Rose Bowl candidates, have records of 6-2 and 3-3-1 respectively.

"In the best interests of the total Rose Bowl program," he said, "it might be well to invite TWO outside teams to put on the football part of the show."

Marin Ski Club Will Show Annual Movie Wednesday

The Marin Ski Club will show its annual ski movie next Wednesday at the Fairfax Theater in Fairfax at 6:50 and again at 8:50 p.m.

This year's film is entitled "High Skis." It will be color and personally narrated by Dick Barrymore. "High Skis" is a film tour of "adventure, travel and humor through the United States, Canada, New Zealand, Squaw Valley, Sun Valley, Alta, Aspen and other ski areas of the world, said Barrymore.

Appearing in the film will be skiers Christian Pravda, Ted Johnson, and Pepe Granshammer.

"This years movie is one of the finest ski adventures ever filmed," said Dean Greenstreet, vice president of the Marin Club.

Admission tickets ($1.50) are on sale at San Rafael Sporting Goods.

San Anselmo '9' Try For 6th Win

The San Anselmo Merchants — undefeated in five outings of the San Francisco AAA semi-professional winter baseball league — will try for their sixth victory tomorrow against the Managua Club of San Francisco.

Mino Genunianni will be the starting hurler for the Merchants in the 1 p.m. contest at Memorial Park in San Anselmo.

Elgin Baylor Called To Active Duty

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The 6th Army has called up Elgin Baylor for active duty, riddling the chances of the Los Angeles Lakers to bring a National Basketball Association championship to their new home.

An Army spokesman at San Francisco said last night that Baylor's orders had been mailed to him in Los Angeles. He said that Baylor probably would have to report to active duty in about a month.

Baylor said he hasn't received the orders. His coach, Fred Schaus, was stunned by the announcement.

Baylor, who is married and has one child, has served six months of reserve training.

The Lakers have compiled a 9-2 record in the NBA and seemed headed for a Western Division title.

Baylor is the first major professional basketball star to be called up. Many of the leading players in the game are not eligible for military service because they exceed the height limit of 6 feet, 6 inches.

Baylor, 6-5 and weighing 230, is generally recognized as one of the greatest all-around players in the history of professional basketball. A product of Seattle University, he was an instant success in the tough NBA. He holds the league record of 71 points in a single game and is an outstanding rebounder and playmaker.

Whitney Reed Upset

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP) — Roland Barnes of Brazil upset top-seeded Whitney Reed of Alameda, Calif. 6-2, 6-4, 2-6, 6-4 in the International Tennis Tournament today. Barnes is seeded third.

Boston Coach Will Continue Protests Of Bad Treatment

BOSTON (AP) — Slapped with a $200 fine and a warning by the National Basketball Association, Boston Coach Red Auerbach today says he'll continue to protest to the officials if he feels justified.

NBA President Maurice Podoloff announced the fine for "gross misconduct" at the Boston-Detroit game in Philadelphia Thursday night. He said Auerbach would be suspended for three games the next time he is ejected from a contest.

Rookie referee Joe Gushue's technical foul call against the champion Celtics had touched off the incident.

"I was protecting my ball players and if Bob Cousy gets the treatment he received in Philadelphia again I'll do it all over," Auerbach said.

Auerbach said Gushue "kept watching me and not the game. Cousy, meanwhile, was getting a real going over, so much so that he finally protested and when he did so this Gushue hit him with a technical.

"I jumped up and before I could say a word, bang—a technical for me."

Neves On 4 Winners

SAN BRUNO (AP) — Ralph Neves rode four winners at Tanforan yesterday boosting his season record to 12 victories in 41 starts.

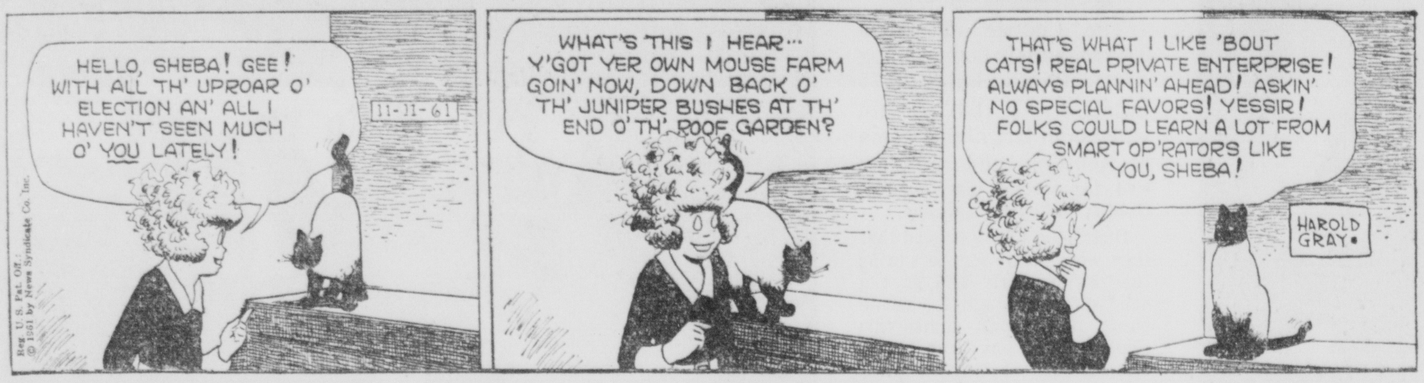

Neves won on Shoo-M ($5.60) in the first race, Knee Deep ($4.80) in the second, Peggy O'Neill ($3.60) in the third and Black Bully ($4) in the seventh. The daily double paid $13.80.

Macdan ($10.40) took the feature.

ALMANAC

Today is Saturday, Nov. 11, the 315th day of the year with 50 more to follow in 1961. Today is Veterans Day.

The moon is approaching its first quarter.

The morning stars are Mercury and Venus.

The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1889, Washington became the 42nd state admitted to the Union.

In 1918, World War I ended with the signing of an armistice between the Allied and central powers in a railway car in France.

In 1933, the first "great black blizzard" swept over the Great Plains leaving dust covered devastation and terror in its wake.

In 1957, Jamaica became the first British West Indian colony to achieve internal self government.

A thought for the day: American writer William Woodward said: "The turning point of lives are not the great moments. The real crises are often concealed in occurences so trivial in appearance that they pass unobserved."

TIME AND TIDE

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

The Appearance Of A Guess Might Be Very Deceptive

Our problem for the week has been whether to play the king or the jack when you need only one trick in the suit. It's not always clear to the opponents whether or not you have such a problem.

North	East	South	West
1 ♠	Pass	2 ♡	Pass
4 ♡	Pass	6 ♡	All Pass

Opening lead — ♣ 2

It was a silly slam contract. South should bid four notrump at his second turn to ask how many aces his partner had. North would bid five diamonds (showing only one ace) and South would sign off safely at five hearts.

But South did bid the slam, and West led a club. Sniff if you must, but play the hand.

South put up dummy's king of clubs, and East won with the ace. And now East foolishly returned a club, thinking it was more likely that his partner had a queen than an ace.

South won the club, drew trumps and ran the spades to get rid of his diamonds. The difference between making the slam and going down one was 1,530 points.

SHOULD HAVE KNOWN: East should have known that South had the queen of clubs. For this reason the only hope was to return a diamond at the second trick.

Assume that South does not hold the queen of clubs. What would he play from the dummy at the first trick? South would not assume that West was underleading the ace of clubs, so he would naturally play the jack of clubs from dummy rather than the king. South's failure to play the jack of clubs from dummy made it clear that he held the queen in his own hand.

The appearance of a guess is not proof that a guess exists. Put yourself in your opponent's place to test the situation.

DAILY QUESTION: Partner opens with one heart, and the next player passes. You hold:

♠ 10 6 5 2
♥ 8
♦ 9 6 5 3 2
♣ A 7 3

What do you say?

Answer: Pass. The best way to stay out of trouble is to pass worthless hands.

FOOTBALL TONIGHT
KFRC—S. F. State - Sacramento State, 7:55 p.m.

"Each . . . decently habited . . ."

If you were to study the "rules and regulations" or canons of the Episcopal Church — and the Book of Common Prayer — you will find that the words "decently habited" are all you'll find relating to the dress of Episcopal Clergymen.

There, in few words, is the answer to the question, "Why do your clergy have to dress differently from lay people?"

They don't have to. Episcopalians don't think of it in that way. Wearing of weekday clerical dress and of service vestments is ancient tradition. We think of it as the "uniform of God's ministers" — the submergence of the individual in the office he or she fills. Acolytes, lay readers and choir members are "vested" when they take part in an Episcopal service. It is democratic.

The humblest deacon, just out of seminary, and the rector of the largest parish in the country are level as servants of God in clericals or vestments.

The Episcopal Church is one of the most democratic institutions in the United States. In fact, it is governed jointly by a House of Bishops and a House of Clerical and Lay delegates. This is similar to our own Senate and House of Representatives.

You'll like the democratic "feel" of the Episcopal Church. Won't you come to church with us tomorrow in the Episcopal Church near you?

"The Episcopal Church, Some Essential Facts" will tell you more about this great church. Send the coupon for your copy. No obligation.

FLAG RIPPER HELD

Jesus Farias Iglesias, 28, a Mexican national from Guadalajara, waits to be booked in Los Angeles on suspicion of disturbing the peace. Two men made a citizen's arrest of him on historic Olvera Street because, they said, he pulled A U.S. flag from its pole and ripped it. Police said Iglesias told them he was "angry because the U. S. had been molesting Mexican nationals and beating Mexicans who come to this country." (AP Wirephoto)

Nine Students Flying South To Conference

Nine Marin students will fly to Long Beach tomorrow night to attend the Governor's Conference on Youth Monday and Tuesday. About 2,000 young men and women from throughout the state will attend.

Those to attend from Marin are:

Philippine Priest Speaks Tomorrow At St. Paul's

St. Paul's Episcopal Church, San Rafael, will have as its guest speaker tomorrow Rev. Alejandre R. Tauli, a priest of the Philippine Independent Church.

Father Tauli is assistant at the Epiphany Mission, La Trinidad, Benguet Mountain Province, and is in charge of College Work among Episcopalians in Baguio City, the summer capital of the Philippines.

He is a graduate of St. Andrew's Seminary, Manilla, where he received his Bachelor of Theology degree "magna cum laude" in 1951. In late 1941, he was imprisoned by the Japanese while a student at the University of the Philippines, and after his release served as a secret agent for the Philippine guerrilla forces.

Father Tauli was a recent clerical deputy to the General Convention of the Episcopal Church where the Philippine Independent Church was brought into full Communion with the Episcopal Church in this country.

He will preach at both 9 and 11 a.m. services at St. Paul's.

Christian Science Theme On Immortals

The indestructible relationship of God and man will be explained at Christian Science services tomorrow in a Lesson-Sermon on the subject "Mortals and Immortals."

These words of Paul will be included in the readings from the Bible: "The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together." (Rom. 8.)

NOTICE TO PAY ASSESSMENTS GREENBRAE SANITARY SEWERAGE PROJECT NO. 1961-1
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that all owners of real property liable to be assessed to pay the costs and expenses of the acquisitions and improvements described in Resolution of Intention No. 18-61 adopted by the Sanitary Board of Sanitary District No. 2 of Marin County on August 29, 1961, are hereby notified that on October 19, 1961, the assessment and diagram to pay the costs and expenses of said acquisitions and improvements was recorded in my office and in the offices of the County Surveyor of Marin County, and the Superintendent of Streets of the City of Larkspur, and the Town of Corte Madera.

Said assessments are due and payable immediately at the District Office, 500 Tamalpais Drive, Corte Madera, California, and must be paid within the period expiring November 20, 1961.

In the event of the failure to pay before the expiration of said period, serial bonds to represent the unpaid assessments and bearing interest at the rate of not to exceed six percent (6%) per annum will be issued pursuant to the Improvement Bond Act of 1915, the last installment of which bonds shall mature not to exceed fourteen (14) years from the second day of July next succeeding ten months from their date.

DEL MESA

CONTEMPORARY SHOWPLACE $140,000
This unusual architect-desgned home is right out of the pages of "House Beautiful." Using unexpected materials the designer has created one of Marin's finest homes, one of the county's best-constructed homes. Immense sliding doors open from the large living room to the pool area, which is beautifully landscaped, and adjoined by dressing rooms. Best mountain and valley view. Servants' quarters under garage; screened barbecue room in shaded garden. Three large bedrooms, den, 4½ baths. Three fireplaces, 4-car garage.

KENTFIELD

OPEN HOUSE—1 TO 4:30 P.M.
22 COLLEGE PARK AVE., KENTFIELD $38,000
(Turn into College Park, Kentfield, opposite Kent Woodlands, off College Ave.) Inspect these features: 3 bedrooms, 2 baths family room with sliding doors to black-topped play area; separate dining room, eating area in kitchen; entrance hall; bookshelves in paneled living room, whose windows face professionally landscaped garden (the birches are golden-green now). Quiet street, near Kent School, shops.

PARK-LIKE $55,000
Lawns, trees, and a manicured garden contribute to a sylvan effect. Delightful three bedroom, 2-bath home; efficient kitchen with breakfast area; large dining ell; drapes, carpets, breakfast set, dryer, dishwasher, electric range.

3-ACRE COUNTRY ESTATE
A long tree-lined driveway ends in a circle in front of older remodeled home:: 4 bedrooms, separate dining room, electric kitchen, sunporch entrance; endless storage. All rooms have a wooded view of the surrounding grounds which include new swimming pool, lanai; a half acre of level recreation space, brick barbecue patio, family orchard, tall old trees to shade it all.

KENT WOODLANDS

MAGNIFICENT PROTECTED VIEW $57,500
Two fireplaces, one in sunken living room, one in family room. Immaculate well-appointed kitchen; 4 bedrooms, 2 baths, lots of storage. View from front of home will always feature the forest-covered mountain: it's water district property, will never change. Level site for pool. Deck.

MILL VALLEY

COUNTRY CALM $26,950
Birds, trees and country quiet are here, just 30 minutes from the city's hustle; 3 bedrooms, 2 baths, large family room, decks view, circular driveway; adjacent lot available.

PROTECTED, LEVEL $27,500
Completely fenced yard provides privacy, seclusion. Outdoor garden room, roofed, and wired for electrical convenience; lath-covered patio, with Sonoma stone waterfall. Two bedrooms, 2 baths, close to shopping, transportation.

FAMILIES WITH CHILDREN $27,500
You will enjoy living in this 3 bedroom, 2 bath home. There are fields and hills nearby for adventurous roaming and playing. Rumpus room could be created from downstairs area. Brand new.

DINING ROOMS $37,500
are in demand. Here's a 3-bedroom, 2½ bath home with a separate dining room and family room, as well as a breakfast area in the kitchen. Included too are the refrigerator, top quality wall-to-wall carpeting, drapes.

FASTIDIOUS CARE $43,000
went into the selection of the quality extras in this 3-bedroom, 2-bath home. Mural wallpapr, grass cloth wall covering; beautifully appointed bathrooms and kitchen; slate floor in entrance; unusual shoji-screen treatment to allow privacy or entertainment space; two fireplaces, one in large living room, one in dining room; level patio off dining room. View wooded, secluded. Best Mill Valley area.

ROSS

GLAMOROUS $75,000
Swimming pool terrace is dramatically situated with trees and shrubs as backdrop, with outstanding valley view in the other direction. Extra bedroom and bath, dressing rooms built alongside pool; large brick patio with built-in barbecue just below pool terrace. 2 delightful acres, both sunny and wooded. Separate dining room, breakfast nook in kitchen, 3 bedrooms, 3 baths, study, den or game room.

SAUSALITO

SPECIAL
$2,595

Here's a real buy—it's a little '61 Buick compact 4-dr. Special deluxe that we've used here at the company during 1961.

It sells new for just over $3100 but you can buy this one for $2595 with a full new car guarantee of one year and 12,000 miles—just like a brand new one.

It's two tone blue with matching custom interior. This little car has only 7,000 miles on it and hasn't a scratch, dent or show of wear anywhere. It's fully equipped with dynaflow, radio, heater, EZI glass, and brand new white wall tires that we just installed so as to make this car as close to new as possible. It's never been licensed so you would be the first owner of record.

It burns regular gas and gets exceptional mileage for a car that has as much performance as this one has.

President Pledges U.S. Ready To Fight Again

U. S. VETERANS DAY — All over the nation today Americans honored their war dead in solemn ceremonies. There were also parades, open houses and speeches. In Marin County, Hamilton Air Force Base put on a show for the youngsters. A flight of F-101 Voodoo jet fighters, above, streak over the base, one of the highlights of the all-day ceremonies. Below, three Cub Scouts of Mill Valley Pack 54 (from left) Jimmy Young, 8, Garrett Donhoff, 8, and Eddie Radenzel, 8, peer into the tail of a jet interceptor. The program included displays of 45 years of aircraft, parades and spectacular demonstrations by crack drill teams. Marin County American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Veterans of World War I and Disabled American Veterans took part. (Independent-Journal photos by Joe DeNarie)

Solemn JFK Speech Marks Veterans Day

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Standing bareheaded before the graves of unknown Americans who died in three great wars, President John F. Kennedy pledged today that the United States would fight again if necessary to maintain "the frontiers of freedom."

But he used the emotional occasion of Veterans Day ceremonies to pray that "there will no no veterans of any further war — not because all shall have perished but because all shall have learned to live together in peace.

Kennedy was born in 1917, the year America went to battle in World War I.

Today, 43 years from the day the great war ground to a halt, he stood in Arlington National Cemetery and said:

"In a world tormented by tension and the possibilities of conflict, we meet in a quiet commemoration of an historic day of peace.

"In an age that threatens the survival of freedom, we join together to honor those who made our freedom possible."

In front of where the president spoke were the graves of the unknowns, from the First, Second and Korean wars.

Kennedy said it is a tragic fact that the hopes surrounding the end of World War I have not been fulfilled.

He added that "some might say, therefore, that this day has lost its meaning, that the shadow of the new and deadly weapons have robbed this day of its great value, that whatever name we now give, this day, whatever flags we fly or prayers we utter, it is too late to honor those who died before, and too soon to promise the living an end to organized death."

But, he declared, Nov. 11, 1918, also signified the beginning of man's great effort in recent times to solve the prob-

Nikita Warned On A-War By Johnson

McKINNEY, Tex. (UPI) — Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson told a veterans day gathering today that "neither Khrushchev nor his supporters can find a place to hide" from American bombers and missiles if they start a war.

Appealing for peace, the vice president said he wanted to make it clear that he was not rattling rockets, but merely was serving notice that the United States stood well-prepared to defend itself if attacked.

Johnson flew into McKinney by helicopter after a brief side trip to Bonham, Tex., where he visited for 15 minutes with cancer-stricken House Speaker Sam Rayburn.

McKinney, about 35 miles north of Dallas, was swelled to three times its usual population of 16,000 by visitors who came to hear Johnson. He spoke at a football stadium after a parade through the gaily-decorated city.

"The United States has today hundreds of manned intercontinental bombers capable of reaching the remotest parts of the Soviet Union," Johnson said. "Neither Khrushchev nor his supporters can find a place to hide."

"I do not speak of these things willingly, for under existing conditions a word unfortunately spoken may bring disaster, and the multiplication of words can do little to explain the situation."

"But I feel that if I keep silent, the forces of evil in this world will interpret this silence as a sign of weakness."

GEORGE KRUSZ
New chamber manager

New Chamber Head Named In San Rafael

George Krusz, for the past year manager of the domestic trade department of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, will become new manager of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce next Thursday.

Announcement of the appointment was made today by Jordan L. Martinelli Jr., chamber president, as a result of a decision of the board of directors at a special Thursday night meeting.

Krusz is 26, married and father of two daughters.

His previous work has included service with chambers of commerce in San Antonio, Tex., and in Pasadena, Los Angeles County. Krusz's father, Harry J. Krusz, is executive vice president of the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce.

Born in Tulsa, Okla., Krusz attended schools in Texas and North Carolina before taking a B.A degree in economics at Principia College in Elsha, Ill.

He served with the U.S. Marine Corps from 1957 to last year and was discharged with the rank of first lieutenant.

His educational background includes courses in organization management at Stanford and Santa Clara Universities.

State Dept. Fires 500 Employees

WASHINGTON (AP) — About 500 State Department employees will begin getting dismissal notices Wednesday. There is not enough money to pay them.

The pink slips—called "terminations" in the language of government—will become effective early next year.

The dismissals, cutting into the department's 7,200-man force here, were ordered because of a shortage of funds for salaries.

Deputy Undersecretary Roger W. Jones announced in mid-October that layoffs would be required because Congress provided about 10 million dollars less than the approximately 219 million the department hoped to have for operating purposes this fiscal year.

Officials said they didn't know exactly how many will be let out but that at least 500 will get notices between Nov. 15 and Dec. 1.

Officials said morale is suffering under the impact of the reductions and noted that many readjustments will be necessary.

One may be in the department's office of security. It is responsible for protecting the secretary of state, foreign visitors and U. S. embassies, and has the job of checking on the security of employees.

The security staff, numbering about 150 officers, will be reduced by 25.

Fallout Is Low In California

BERKELEY (UPI) — State health officials have assured Californians that the level of radiation in the atmosphere is a long way from the danger point.

The officials met yesterday at the request of Gov. Edmund G. Brown. All expressed confidence that atmospheric peril would not occur in peacetime testing.

Since the Soviet Union resumed nuclear testing in mid-September, it was reported, the average Californian has received about 1/17th of the maximum safe doses of radiation from fallout.

During the next year, officials said, the total fallout danger is not likely to reach one-third of the unsafe level.

In micro microcuries, the reading has average 10 since the tests began, with the figure reaching as high as 68. The danger point would be a continuous reading of 170 for a year.

Timber Interests Eye Point Reyes

By RANDALL GOULD

Big timber interest may be on the verge of acquiring valuable and up to now unbuyable redwood areas in Northern California through a complex swap involving part of the proposed Point Reyes National Seashore acreage.

Though the House of Representatives has yet to act on creation of the Point Reyes National Seashore, the itch to achieve something tangible has apparently caused the Bureau of Land Management, a division of the Department of Interior, to venture on a curious and unusual maneuver.

Involved are the Tevis Land and Livestock Co., with San Francisco offices, owner of 2,500 acres on the westerly ridge halfway between Olema and Bolinas; A. W. Sweet's Sweet Timber Co. which has an option on the property and fine redwood territory federally owned in Del Norte and Humboldt counties.

The government has previously refused a number of bids to acquire some or all of its prime redwoods aggregating perhaps as much as 9,000 acres. The government view has hitherto been that the property is "more valuable for forestry and public recreation."

Now it appears the Sweet intrests may be on the verge of putting over a deal based primarily on the pressure to get some sort of action under way toward creating the national seashore.

The Tevis company some time ago executed an option to Sweet offering the whole Tevis ranch for a total figure of $1,700,000.

This option has been transferred to the Bureau of Land Management, together with an application for exchange for federal lands of equal value.

A provision of the application says that if the lands concerned — meaning the Tevis property and apparently the federal lands in Del Norte and Humboldt counties — "do not produce an equal value exchange, revisions or additions

NOVATO WINS; COLLEGE TARS SCORE UPSET

The undefeated Novato High Hornets became the undisputed 1961 Marin County Athletic League football champions last night by dumping San Rafael 22-0, and the College of Marin Tars scored a stunning upset over Shasta College at Kentfield, 28-14, to grab second spot in the Golden Valley Conference standings.

In other games yesterday Terra Linda was walloped 39-7 by Del Valle of Layafette, and Tomales was edged by Cloverdale, 20-19.

This afternoon Redwood met Marin Catholic at Kentfield, and at the same stadium tonight at 8 o'clock, Sir Francis Drake and Tamalpais high schools clash. (See details and pictures, pages 6 and 7.)

FBI, Police Hunting For Bank-Kidnap Trio

Scores of Federal Bureau of Investigation agents and San Francisco police continued the search today for three young gunmen — one disguised as a woman — who robbed a San Francisco bank of $62,693 in currency after holding two bank officers and their families overnight in a Greenbrae home.

Aiding in the search were sketches of the robbers drawn by Marin Deputy Sheriff Edmond D. Mauberret from descriptions by the victims.

San Francisco Police Chief Thomas Cahill announced all other Bay Area police had been alerted and the "full potential" of his own force thrown into the search.

The amount of the loot was announced last night after an earlier estimate of about $78,000 had been reported.

That all the loot taken yesterday was in currency was announced by the San Francisco police robbery detail.

Deputies estimated 15 FBI agents were among the numerous law enforcement officers swarming yesterday around the home of Joseph A. Finocchio at 3 Via La Cumbre in the Larkspur portion of Greenbrae after the robbery was reported.

Finocchio, manager of the Bank of America branch at Union and Webster, was held hostage at his home along with his wife Louise, and their daughter, and the wife and sons, Tom, 20, and Robert, 12, of Henry Lupori, of Millbrae, the bank's assistant cashier.

The ordeal for the bank officers and their families began Thursday night about 7:30 o'clock when the three gunmen forced their way into the Finocchio home.

While Finocchio's wife and daughter were held prisoner by one gunman, the others

Yes, Dears, It's A Dog's Life

By CARLETON WILLIAMS

Prince, a collie dog lately of New York who, since birth, has been allergic to automobile travel, heartily endorses the comforts of the jet age.

While his family, Mr. and Mrs. William Green and their four children, drove the long, tiring haul from Long Island to San Rafael last week, Prince took life easy in the plush kennels at New York's Idlewilde Airport.

There, reports are, the accommodations are slightly more luxurious than those provided for human beings. The food served the canine boarders, it is said, is far more appetizing than canned dog food served on the tail gate of a station wagon.

Green, a cost accountant in the electronics industry, got his first look at Marin County during World War II as he passed through on his way home from the South Pacific. He always intended to return, finally making the big move last week.

His wife, Margaret, and four children, Carol, Maura, Margaret and Elizabeth, looked forward to the trip, including side tours to Yosemite, Southern California and other points of interest.

Prince would have no part of the journey.

The solution, agreeable to all: Leave him at the airport and send for him when the family was settled.

A telephone call this week to Idlewilde from Buzz Kilborn's Colonial Motel, the family residence until they locate a permanent home, placed Prince on a super-jet.

Five hours later he joined his family in San Rafael.

According to Green, he scarcely speaks to the other dogs in the neighborhood.

'Coffee, tea, or milk, sir?'

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

No Clemency

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown has declined to intervene in the scheduled execution Tuesday of Richard A. Lindsey, who was convicted of the rape-murder of a 6-year-old girl last January in Kern County.

Brown, following a clemency hearing in Los Angeles yesterday, said he could find no reason for delaying the execution.

Lindsey, 31-year-old transient farm laborer from Arvin, was convicted of inducing the girl into his car at the Shafter Labor Camp. Lindsay and his wife then drove into nearby hills where he allegedly assaulted the child and strangled her. He pleaded guilty.

Bridges Makes Charge

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Harry Bridges, president of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union, has been refused permission by the U.S. State Department to go to Cuba to attend a labor convention.

Bridges had planned to attend a convention of the Cuban Labor Federation in Havana Nov. 11-13.

But the State Department ruled Bridges' trip would not be in the best interests of the United States.

Archeologists Find

VOLTERRA, Italy (AP) — Archeologists in this hill town between Pisa and Siena say they have found a Roman theater that may be one of the largest and best preserved in Italy.

Still excavating the semicircular 2,000-year-old ruin, they estimate it once seated 5,000 spectators.

South African Raids

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — South African police staged another series of raids last night. They arrested hundreds of persons, chiefly in Cape Town and Durban.

Police said these raids are designed to round up criminal elements, but persons suspected of political subversion — whites as well as non-whites—also are being taken.

Strike Averted

DETROIT (UPI) — A national strike by United Auto Workers Union employees at eight Bendix plants across the nation was averted early today when bargainers reached agreement on national economic issues.

The union, however, immediately set another strike deadline for next Friday midnight on non-economic and local plant-level issues.

Survival Caravan

BOSTON (AP) — A survival caravan, featuring a full-sized cut-out of a fallout shelter mounted on a trailer started on a nation-wide tour yesterday.

The driver, Edwin P. Fifielski, of Chicago, national commander of the American Veterans of World War II and Korea, is scheduled to drive the display to 48 state capitols.

After a luncheon with Gov. John A. Volpe and a meeting with Mayor John Collins, Fifielski expressed scorn for the "defeatists and faint-hearted who see something immoral in preparing to survive nuclear attack."

Mineo In Trouble

NEW YORK (AP) — Actor Sal Mineo laid out $50 yesterday for a speeding ticket, but he pleaded innocent on a similar summons handed him five minutes after he got the first one.

The 22-year-old actor had paid a $15 fine for speeding in October, 1960. Three convictions for speeding within an 18-month period mean automatic loss of license.

Mineo received the most recent summons as he drove on a parkway June 1. The first accused him of driving 54 miles an hour in a 40-mile zone. The second charged him with doing 53 mph.

The case growing out of the latter charge will be heard Jan. 16.

Christopher Mum

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—San Francisco Mayor George Christopher says he has not decided whether to run for lieutenant governor on the Republican ticket.

"I want an exclusive poll on this—a public sentiment survey," he said yesterday. "I want to see if all those letters I have been receiving urging me to run represent the bona fide thinking of the Republican Party."

18 Die In Air Crash

LISBON, Portugal (AP) — A military plane crashed and burned yesterday in Angola, killing the commander of the Portuguese army there and 17 other persons, officials announced.

A Lusitania news agency dispatch from Luanda, the capital, said the plane, a DC3, overshot a landing strip at Chitado, near the South African border, hit a tree and exploded. There were no survivors.

Market Plan Assailed In Mill Valley

Mill Valley's seven-member architectural advisory committee Thursday night accused United Markets of presenting plans for one type of market structure, then building another.

A year ago, said the committee, plans were approved for a new market on East Blithedale Avenue to be a square box, glass and aluminum structure." Now the building is almost completed, it is found to be "pitch-roofed and ranchy," declared the committee.

City Manager A. E. Almcrants said "Building Inspector Preston L. Canfield is just about ready to lose his job" over the situation. Almcrants said San Rafael builder William H. McDevitt "put Canfield into the situation."

McDevitt said the original plans were designed for a Mission Street location in Daly City and it was decided they were not suitable for Mill Valley. A plan for a "ranch-type building with a porch" was then designed

Chairman A. B. (Gus) Costigan of the architectural advisory committee asked McDevitt, "How is it we never saw the new drawings?"

Member Lucienne Bloch Dimitroff said: "There's nothing ranchy about that. That red and yellow is just ghastly."

Member Asa Hanamoto, landscape architect, said the plan needed more landscaping.

The matter was continued to Nov. 28 to give McDevitt time to resubmit altered plans with new colors and additional landscaping.

V. M. MOLOTOV
End of the road?

Molotov Is On Way To Moscow

VIENNA (UPI)—Vyacheslav M. Molotov, one of the last of the "Old Bolsheviks," rode through Czechoslovakia today on his way to Moscow and the prospect of final degradation.

Molotov, a pre-war premier of Russia who served as its foreign minister for years during and after World War II, already had been dismissed from the Communist Party in retribution for reported attempts to block Premier Nikita Khrushchev's path to power.

Well-informed sources said Molotov also had been dismissed from his latest official post as Russia's chief delegate to the International Atomic Energy Agency, which has its headquarters here.

Soviet embassy officials hustled him and his wife to the Vienna railway station last night and put them aboard the Moscow express minutes before its departure.

Two hours later, the train crossed the border into Czechoslovakia and sped on toward Moscow, where it is scheduled to arrive tomorrow.

Molotov was violently denounced by Khrushchev and other Communist leaders at the recent party convention in Moscow. His departure from Vienna was expected to mark the end of his career.

Bridge Board Approves 3-Year Insurance Policy

A new three-year multi-risk insurance policy costing more than half a million dollars in premium was approved by the Golden Gate Bridge directors yesterday.

Even at that, the $538,650 premium would have been $22,680 higher had not the chairman of the insurance committee and other members of the board not gone east to confer with agencies which set the rate.

Insurance Chairman L. E. Castner, Sonoma director, told the bridge board yesterday the new $35,000,000 policy is an increase of $4,760,000 more coverage than in the last three years. The board had approved the increase earlier.

The rate was reduced by the Inland Marine Insurance Bureau in New York from $1.6038 per $1,000 to $1.539, a cut which paid for nearly half of the premium for the added 4¾ million dollars of insurance.

At the same time, Castner recommended that the bridge directors approve a physical depreciation study of the bridge, now nearly 25 years old. The board voted for such a study by the nationwide American Appraisal Company of Milwaukee, at a cost of $4,000.

On the recommendation of Castner and the insurance committee, the bridge directors turned down offered insurance against radioactive contamination of the bridge from spillage of radioactive particles hauled across the span. The premium was $21,735 per year.

The directors were told by the general manager that traffic is continuing its steady increase. In October, 1,739,669 vehicles crossed the span, an increase of 6.2 per cent more than last October. But total revenues declined 2.6 per cent, from $398,120 a year ago to $387,821 last month, mainly because of the reduction in toll for light trucks.

Although total traffic increased 6.2 per cent, the number of vehicles paying cash toll declined 1.9 per cent, while the number of motorists using commute tickets increased a whopping 25.2 per cent. The increase in vehicles using commute tickets almost exactly balanced off the loss of revenue from decreased cash tolls. Revenue decrease for the bridge was almost entirely in the loss of income from light trucks, which pay 25 cents now. It was 50 cents last October.

Contract for the three quarter million dollar widening of the Marin end of the bridge has been let to Massman Construction Co., and work will start shortly after the first of December, the directors were told. The job is expected to take eight months.

Two state agencies have now rejected proposals that they install sanitary facilities on the Vista Point at the Marin end of the bridge, the directors were told.

A letter from state highway engineer J. C. Womack said his office had contacted the State Department of Natural Resources, which said it could not at this time make the point a roadside rest. The highway department had refused earlier to install the facilities. The Building and Operating committee of the bridge was asked to study the problem.

Novato School Unification Campaign Set

Final campaign plans for the coming Novato-San Jose School District unification election on Nov. 21 were made Thursday night by the Committee for Better Education, which favors unification.

The committee has bumper strips ready for distribution at the shopping centers this weekend.

Robert Carrow, committee chairman, reported merchants were receptive to pro-unification posters he placed in their windows. The posters read: "Let's pull Novato together."

The committee members plan to distribute 2,000 pamphlets before the election. A telephone campaign will be made to get out the vote, said Mrs. Roy Corliss, publicity chairman. Transportation and baby sitters will be available on day of election, Carrow said.

NEW LAGUNITAS SCHOOL CLASSROOM READY

Nobody wanted to play hooky from the Lagunitas School yesterday. Reason was that there's always charm for children about something new. And spic and span new quarters were ready at last. Move-in was successfully acomplished yesterday in the last of five new classrooms which have been under construction. These pictures show 34 curious pupils comprising the sixth grade class of Harry Roche, one photo being "from the outside in" and the other taken from where the youngsters were about to install their books and pencils. A multi-purpose room will be complete in about two weeks to finish the overall construction schedule, according to Supt. Clifford L. Frye. (Independent-Journal photos)

Supervisors Face Divided Activities

Marin County supervisors will be busy Monday but aside from their regular scheduled 2 p.m. meeting, they may be busy in divided activities.

Chairman William D. Fusselman has issued a call through County Clerk George S. Jones for a get-together at 10 a.m. in Lucas Valley to watch county and state engineers start a survey of the county hospital, with a view toward shoring it up temporarily in order that its license will be renewed Jan. 1.

But Supervisors Walter R. Castro and William Gnoss were already committeed to attend a 10 a.m. meeting of the California Aeronautics Commission in the San Rafael City Hall. Gnoss might not even be back from a northern trip. And Supervisor George Ludy is off on a three-week jaunt to Mexico.

Correspondence to be considered Monday afternoon will include a letter from Asst. Auditor Michael Mitchell, understood to embody requests for firm policy decisions on what's to be done about the hospital. Accompanying this will be a letter from Frank E. Marsh's International Industrial Institute about its offer to build a hsopital and lease beds to the county.

Business of the supervisors' session starting at 1 p.m., Tuesday, will include a 3 p.m. discussion of the rapid transit dilemma, preparatory to future public hearing on what Marin County thinks of its present exclusion from what was originally a five-county plan.

At 4 p.m. the supervisors will discuss with state highway officials the long-argued question of access to Highway 101 from the Silveira ranch north of San Rafael. Somewhere among these affairs the board is scheduled to take up once more the question of an excavation ordinance.

HUNTING

drove Finocchio to Millbrae where they picked up Lupori, his wife and two sons.

They drove the Luporis to the Finocchio home and waited until it was nearly time for the bank's time lock to open at 8 a.m.

They then took Lupori to San Francisco and forced two bank employees, Susan Romweber and Carol Hickenbothom, to help them as they cleaned out the vault.

After getting the currency, they phoned the third robber in Greenbrae to report the robbery completed. They vanished, still driving Finocchio's pink Cadillac, which was found abandoned in San Francisco about four hours later.

Lupori, who had been left trussed up in the women's room of the bank, managed to work himself free about 15 minutes after they left.

He first phoned the Finocchio home to make sure the persons held hostage were all right and then gave the alarm.

The robbery, 28th bank robbery of 1961 in San Francisco, was the largest in the history of the Bank of America and the largest and one of the boldest ever staged in San Francisco.

lems of war by international cooperation.

"That experiment continues in our present day—still imperfect, still short of its responsibilities, but it does offer a hope that some day nations can live in harmony."

Then, in the heart of his speech, he said "there is no way to maintain the frontiers of freedom without cost and commitment and risk. There is no swift and easy path to peace in our generation. No. man who witnessed the tragedies of the last war, no man who can imagine the unimaginable possibilities of the next war, can advocate war out of irritability or frustration or impatience."

But, he said, "Let no nation confuse our perserverance and patience with fear of war or unwillingness to meet our responsibilities. We cannot save ourselves by abandoning those who are associated with us, or rejecting our responsibilities.

"In the end, the only way to maintain the peace is to be prepared in the final extreme to fight for our country—and to mean it."

As a nation, he declared, "we have little capacity for deception. We can convince friend and foe alike that we are in earnest about the defense of freedom only if we are in earnest—and I can assure the world that we are."

Kennedy was the first president to visit Arlington Cemetery on Nov. 11 since Armistice Day was re-named Veterans Day by congressional Act in 1954.

HUGH TURNER ELECTED TO RADIO POST

Hugh Turner, manager of Radio Station KTIM in San Rafael, last night was elected vice-president for radio of the California Broadcaster's Assn. Elected at the organization's annual meeting to the presidency was George Whitney of San Diego. Al Constant of KRON-TV, San Francisco, was named vice-president for TV.

Mayor George Christopher was featured speaker at the dinner which concluded the broadcasters' day-long meeting.

Turner, with KTIM for 14 years, lives at 1470 Pastel Lane, Novato.

Dispute Over Point Reyes Proposal Dims

Prospects of another big dispute over Point Reyes subdevelopment at the Nov. 20 session of the Marin County Planning Commission diminished today when it became known that the petitioners have asked a six weeks continuance.

Point Reyes Land and Development Co. brought in a tentative map a week ago for a 428-acre "Wildlife Acres" development on and southwesterly of Inverness Ridge, four miles by road from the Shoreline Highway and seven miles northwest of Bolinas Village.

The subsequent request for continuance explains that more time for engineering survey is needed.

Hearings scheduled for Nov. 20 will include a proposed use permit for trailer court on Lot 51, Lagunitas Tract, in Forest Knolls. Orville Yerion is applicant.

Eugene C. Wheary has submitted a tentative map for Rolling Hills No. 2 subdivision, about three acres west of the first Rolling Hills unit on the Tiburon Peninsula.

The Northbridge Recreation Club asks a use permit to allow establishment of an outdoor recreation area next to the present community swimming pool in Northbridge, Santa Venetia.

Complaints Pour In On Furnace Co.

William G. McBride, Corte Madera building inspector, said he received more than a dozen telephone calls yesterday complaining about deals with Holland Furnace Co. of San Francisco.

McBride said the calls are coming in from throughout Marin County and some even from San Francisco. McBride has written to the State Department of Professional and Vocational Standards asking the license of Holland Furnace Co. be revoked.

His action came about after he claimed the furnace company had done a $180 job" and charged $650 to Mrs. P. A. Richards of 206 Baltimore Avenue, Corte Madera, a 79-year-old widow.

One of the telephone calls came from an elderly Corte Madera couple who had signed a contract with the Holland Furnace Co. for a new heater at a price of $609.50.

McBride said the job should have cost about $150. "That would be a high estimate," he said. The contract for this particular job was signed on Nov. 3.

McBride requested Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow to revoke the town's business license from the furnace company. Brandow said the request would have to be taken to the town council. The council next meets on Nov. 20.

The building inspector said this second Corte Madera job also did not conform to the town's uniform building code. "It was a substandard job on the reframing," he said.

Nehru Invitation

may be made so as to produce an exchange of equal value, subject, however, to approval of the Bureau of Land Management and applicant."

It is understood the Tevis option has been put in escrow awaiting a timber cruise of the possible exchange areas as a means of establishing values. Indications are that the relatively poorly timbered Tevis holdings may have acquired a new and special value because they lie within the area of the projected seashore.

Apparently it was this pending deal to which Interior Secretary Stewart Udall referred at San Francisco Airport last Wednesday during a brief pause on a trip from Tokyo to Washington, D.C. Udall said that a pending land exchange is likely to give the government its first large land holdings soon on Point Reyes in anticipation of creation of the seashore.

San Rafael attorney Bryan R. McCarthy, who represents the Point Reyes dairy interests and who dug up details of the possible timber swap in Washington, said today:

"It would appear that unless this were carefully looked at, it would be possible that the timber lands in Del Norte and Humboldt might be worth far in excess of the rather poor grade timber on the Point Reyes Peninsula."

During his San Francisco Airport stop, Secretary Udall also expressed hope the Marin County Board of Supervisors would "slow down subdividers and developers in the area" of the proposed national seashore.

A test of the supervisors' readiness to follow the interior secretary's advice appeared to be in the offing, as Point Reyes Land and Development Co. had filed with the county planning commission a tentative map for a 428-acre subdivision in that area. This was scheduled for planning commission hearing Nov. 20.

However, yesterday the planning department received a request from the developers to delay the hearing for six weeks.

Rumors have been in circulation that 8,000 acres of the Bear Valley Ranch north of the Tevis property might be handed over to the government in exchange for tax benefits to be applied to sugar interests also held by the owners. This tract reaches from Olema to the ocean.

Shelter Program Is Called 'Hoax'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The publisher of Scientific American magazine says the government-sponsored fallout shelter program is a "hoax and illusion" and psychologically dangerous because it "brings the third world war closer."

The publisher, Gerald Piel told a meeting of the Commonwealth Club of Northern California yesterday the program "gives the sanction of action to the delusion that a thermonuclear war can be fought and survived.

"It encourages statesmen to take larger risks. It disengages the citizen from vigilance over the rationality and responsibility of his elected officials."

He said a 20-megaton bomb —about a third as large as a recently tested Russian bomb —would set the entire San Francisco Bay Area ablaze, including San Francisco, Oakland, and suburban cities.

OBITUARIES

Schools To Close For Lucas Rites

San Rafael schools will be closed all day Monday for the funeral of Frank Lucas, superintendent of schools from 1954 until ill health forced his resignation last summer.

Lucas, 51, suffered the last in a number of heart attacks Thursday morning while on his way to Santa Venetia School, where he had accepted a teaching post, and died about 4 p.m. that day after being taken to a San Francisco hospital.

Friends may call at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary in San Rafael at 9 a.m. Monday. Requiem High Mass will be celebrated at 9:30 a.m. Monday at St. Raphael's Church, San Rafael. The Rosary will be recited at the mortuary at 8 p.m. tomorrow. Buriel will be private.

Lucas had returned to teaching, in mathematics and social studies to seventh and eighth grades, after resigning as superintendent June 27 after a long period of ill health.

He joined the San Rafael school system as assistant superintendent in August, 1953, and became superintendent in February, 1954. During his time as superintendent, 73 elementary school classrooms were added, including six new schools and additions to others.

Terra Linda High School was opened and additions to it begun, and a new Laurel Dell Intermediate School was started.

Lucas was born in Palo Alto and received his master's degree and doctorate at Stanford University after graduating from University of California at Berkeley. He taught mathematics in seventh and eighth grades at Hillsborough, then at Burlingame High School.

He later served as a child welfare consultant for the Alameda County superintendent's office. Just before coming to San Rafael he was schools superintendent for Pleasanton in Alameda County.

He was a member of the Commonwealth Club, California Assn. of School Administrators, past president of the Junior Statesmen Foundation, a member of Phi Delta Kappa Fraternity and of the Executive Council of the Boy Scouts of America of Marin County.

He leaves his wife, Annetta H. Lucas of 4 Broadview Court, San Rafael, a son, Charles M. Lucas of San Francisco, a daughter, Joan Lucas of Stanford University, his parents Mr. and Mrs. Mark Lucas of San Jose, and three brothers and three sisters, Thomas M. Lucas of Stockton, Lawrence A. Lucas of San Jose, George A. Lucas of San Jose, Mrs. John L. Rutledge of San Leandro, Mrs. Dietrich Otto of San Jose and Mrs. Newell Barnes of Ontario in San Bernardino County.

HERMAN COHN

Herman Cohn, San Rafael apartment house owner, died yesterday at a local hospital after a short illness.

Cohn, 59, had taken ill suddenly at his home during the night and died of an internal hemorrhage after admittance to the hospital. He resided in the apartment building he had just completed four months ago at 4 San Pedro Road, San Rafael.

With his sons Mervyn and Howard Cohn of San Rafael, he also operated loan companies in San Francisco and Vallejo.

He was a member of Doric Lodge 216, Free and Accepted Masons, the Yerba Buena Angling Club, past president of Marin Lodge B'nai B'rith and took an active interest in the Marin Jewish Community Center, San Rafael.

He is survived by his wife, Rose; two sons; one brother Phillip Chandler of San Carlos; and several grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at the Sinai Memorial Chapel, San Francisco, tomorrow at 11:30 a.m., followed by interment at Salem Memorial Park, Colma.

Family members prefer that contributions be made to Congregation Rodef Sholom Building Fund, 1618 Mission Avenue, San Rafael.

OTTO LARSEN

Private funeral services were held this morning for Otto Larsen, Larkspur, iron worker, at the Keaton Mortuary, San Rafael.

Larsen, 51, died yesterday after a long illness at the home of his nephew, Harry Larsen, 33 Bridge Road, Larkspur. He had lived there for the past four months.

A native of Norway, he had come to California in 1923. He was a member of the Iron Workers Union, San Francisco, having worked in this field for 35 years.

He is survived by his nephew and two brothers, Hakon Larsen of San Francisco and Thor Larsen of New York.

Interment was at Cypress Lawn Memorial Park, Colma.

ROSE KOHLER

Private family services will be held Monday for Mrs. Rose Kohler, 79, of 204 Redding Way, San Rafael, who died Wednesday after a lingering illness.

A native of New York, she came to San Rafael six weeks ago and was living with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Hardie. She was a member of the Order of Eastern Star in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Inurnment will be at Mt. Tamalpais Crematory in San Rafael, following private services at Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael, Monday afternoon.

MARK BLACKBURN

Mark Richard Blackburn, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Blackburn of 114 Hickory Road, Fairfax, died at the Fairfax firehouse yesterday morning after a heart seizure.

He had been suffering a heart ailment for a long time. He was rushed to the firehouse where the family doctor and firemen worked on the youngster with a resuscitator without success.

The Blackburns have two other sons, Lance and Glenn. Blackburn is a salesman for Singer Sewing Machine in San Rafael.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Tuesday at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in San Rafael. Burial will be at Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno. Friends may call at Harry M. Williams Mortuary in San Rafael from 9 a.m. tomorrow until 10 a.m. Tuesday.

Unification Re-Study Set

The Marin County Committee on School District Organization will at once begin re-study of the proposal to unify Tomales High School District and seven Sonoma and Marin elementary school districts, Asst. County Supt. Edwin L. Blackmore said today.

The State Board of Education yesterday handed the problem back to the Marin and Sonoma committees, refusing to authorize an election without more study.

The Bolinas-Stinson Beach Unified School District has entered the picture, advocating unification along other lines to include Bolinas-Stinson Beach with West Marin District and provide a high school in the Olema-Point Reyes Station area. In discussion over the past several years, the possibility of including Lagunitas and perhaps Nicasio with such a district has been raised at various times.

ST. JOHN'S NEW ORGAN—Robert W. Hunt, organist and choirmaster at St. John's Episcopal Church in Ross plays the church's new $50,000 organ while Rector Harold E. Hallett, standing enjoys the music. A "Service of Thanksgiving" for the instrument will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. Above, in this divided photo, is a closeup of the pipes of pure alloy for special tones. (Independent-Journal photo)

NEW ORGAN

Bishop Pike Will Attend Ross Fete

Rt. Rev. James A. Pike, Episcopal Bishop of the Diocese of California, tomorrow will be the guest speaker for the "Service of Thanksgiving" for a new organ at St. John's Episcopal Church in Ross.

The 11 a.m. service will initiate public use of the $50,000 instrument, built by the Aeolian-Skinner Organ Co. of Boston, and donated to St. John's and "the Glory of God" in memory of the late Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Good by their daughter, Mrs. Harriette Gist, and son, Howard Good of Ross.

The organ is representative of the tonal qualities of organ builidng of the 18th Century, explained Robert W. Hunt, St. John's organist and choirmaster. He said that certain ranks of pipes also "embrace stops of a romantic nature for playing music of the 19th Century. In addition to fulfilling its primary function as an instrument to meet the needs of the Episcopal service it is also well suited for the performance of all periods of organ literature.

The new organ consists of four divisions called, "exposed great, enclosed great, swell and pedal." Within the main division (exposed great) is the "principal chorus," around which the rest of the instrument is tonally designed. This organ, said Hunt, is "probably the only one in a church on the West Coast with a complete chorus of pure tin pipe work." The alloy produces a tonal bouquet, both gentle and singing (normally pipes are made of tin and lead combined).

The Aeolian-Skinner Co. has built organs for Grace Cathedral in San Francisco, St. Peter and St. Paul cathedrals in Washington, D. C., and the Mormon Tabernacle in Salt Lake City, Utah, among others.

Choristers participating in tomorrow's thanksgiving service will be trebles Michael Allport, James Baubel, Ross Beaton, Thomas Bricca, Laurence Bryant, Craig Cochrane, Nobel Hamilton III, George Eustis Hill, Christopher Hoxie, Erik Innes, Andrew McClaine, John Partridge, Charles Williams, and Thomas Worth; alto Horace Y. Evans III; tenors John V. Beedle, Stephen R. Carrick Jr., and basses Robert H. Reeves, D. Kirk Davidson, and Dr. Paul Nordquist.

EXCHANGE PROGRAM

Marin Unitarian Youth Will Do Benefit Work

Next Saturday the youth group of the Unitarian Church of Marin will hold a work day to raise funds for an international exchange program in which the group is involved.

All day Saturday there will be students available for odd jobs and household chores. Members of the Marin Liberal Religious Youth will wash windows, cars, dogs, babysit, garden. If the job is large, two or more students may be sent. Those wishing aid in the southern Marin area may contact Wilber Lewis, 403 Alexander, Larkspur. Those in North Marin may contact E. W. Egenberger, 301 Adrian Way, Santa Venetia.

The same day the Liberal Religious Youth Groups throughout the Bay Area are participating in similar projects. The national organization, Liberal Religious Youth, Inc., is the member organization of the International Religious Fellowship which represents the United States and Canada.

Every year the International Religious Fellowship conference is hosted in a different country. This next summer it will be held in the United States, with LRY as the host organization. Students will be coming to this conference from England, Switzerland, Holland, and many other countries. In order to defray the expenses of the European students attending the conference it is necessary for LRY to raise about $4,000.

Marin Church Will Host Quiet Day

The Episcopal Church, Deanery of Marin County, will sponsor a Quiet Day for its members and others interested on Tuesday at St. Paul's Church, 1123 Court Street, San Rafael, announced Rev. John Riley, rector of the host parish.

Leader of the meditations will be Sister Elise of the Community of the Holy Spirit. Sister Elise is a graduate of the American Conservatory of Music, Fontainbleau. She holds Bachelor and Master of Science degrees in Music and a Master of Arts degree in education from Columbia University. Sister Elise entered her religious order in 1950 and is presently assistant headmistress of St. Hilda's Schools, New York City.

The Quiet Day will begin with Holy Communion at 10 a.m. and will end with closing prayers at 3 p.m. Those attending are asked to bring sack lunches; coffee will be provided.

Headmaster Guest

Rev. Canon David Forbes, headmaster of the Cathedral School for Boys in San Francisco, will be the guest chapel speaker Thursday at 8 a.m. at the San Rafael Military Academy.

Royal Legion To Hold Its Veterans Church Service

Tomorrow the Northern Zone of the Royal Canadian Legion will hold its annual Veterans' Day Church Service at 4 p.m. in Chapel No. 2 at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Chaplain (Lt. Col.) Leonard L. Bruce of the base, will conduct the service with British and Canadian Consuls assisting, said Harold Foot of Petaluma, chairman. He also expressed appreciation to Col. Harvey E. Henderson, base commander, for use of the chapel.

The Northern Zone of the organization includes the Bay Area and inland as far as Sacramento. A Color Guard from San Francisco Post 25 will be escorted by a drill team from Oakland Post 15.

Foot said the public and ex-British servicemen are invited.

School President Will Be Guest

President Josiah R. Bartlett of the Starr King School for the Ministry, Berkeley will be the guest speaker tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Unitarian-Universalist Church of Marin at the Tamalpais Center Women's Club in Kentfield.

Unique Art Is Pemberton's Topic In Outdoor Art Club Address

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Dr. William Pemberton, Mill Valley psychologist, informed and entertained members of Mill Valley's Outdoor Art Club with a speech and demonstration on "A Semantic Look at Art" at Thursday's home day meeting following a luncheon.

After explaining that most people vary in their acceptance of the unique from being attracted by that which is a little different to being completely indifferent to that which is too different, he said that artists have a wide appreciation of the unique.

Failing to find meaning in the uniqueness of their work, observers assume it has none, not realizing that "meanings or messages of artists are not in the messages or art works" but in the observers themselves.

"When you see a piece of art and see beauty in the picture," Dr. Pemberton declared, "you are out of date because qualities are not in things. Qualities are labels." This is comparable to the color red not being in an object but in the cones of the beholders' eyes.

To illustrate his point the speaker distributed tiny pieces of chemically treated paper to each person present, requesting her to chew it. To those who reported a definite taste in the paper he said, "if you say taste is in the paper, you are obsolete."

He then displayed large placards of the Rorschach ink blots used in psychiatric diagnosis. To illustrate further the point of meanings existing in individuals he asked the audience to call out what each blot looked like. Responses varied widely. He concluded this part of his talk with a brief outline of how the ink blot test reveals information about those to whom it is administered.

Before his discussion of art, Dr. Pemberton touched briefly on the "three great explosions today"—the nuclear, of interest to the semanticist, he said, in that both Russia and the United States claim to be making tests in the interests of mankind — the population, in that both Catholics and protestants claim God-given rights in connection with birth—and the information, in which men's minds are being cluttered with the flood of trivia from mass media of communication.

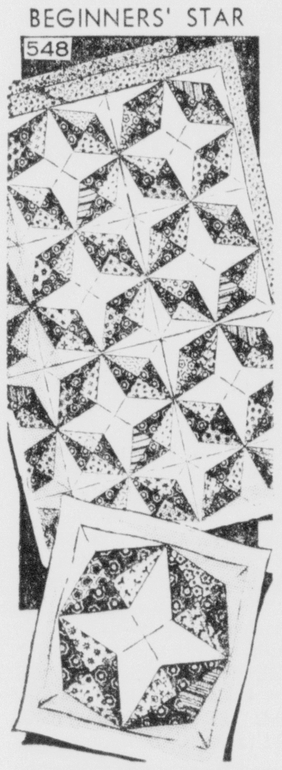

After answering several questions on such subjects as "nuclear anxiety" Dr. Pemberton concluded with his own "pledge of allegiance":

"I pledge allegiance to all mankind and to the principles which will unite them in one world, indivisible, with respect and understanding for all."

During the brief business meeting conducted before the program by president Mrs. Alvin Baukol new members welcomed were Mesdames Ernest R. Kunney, John A. Lennon and Earl F. Reinke.

Mrs. Roger Verran and Mrs. A. A. Hemmerling provided flowers, and luncheon chairman Mrs. Harold Jolley was assisted by Mesdames Jay Chilton, D. Murray Hammond, James Long, John Richardson, John Wyand and Pieter Van Dalen.

New Racoon Branch Announces Officers

The newly formed Racoon Branch of Marin General Hospital Auxiliary elected its first set of officers at its luncheon meeting this week at the Dock in Tiburon. The branch is the fourth auxiliary group that serves as the fund-raising unit for the hospital.

Officers elected were Mrs. Fulton Wilkins of Del Mar, president; Mrs. James W. Clark of Belvedere, vice president; Mrs. Joseph Royer of Belvedere, secretary; and Mrs. Thomas Behrens of Tiburon, treasurer. Mrs. Richard Sims, senior auxiliary member, will act as liaison representative.

To add as individual touch to the group a raccoon coat was chosen as insignia. It will be worn alternately by various members at forthcoming fund-raising events, first of which will be a benefit luncheon and fashion show at the Dock Dec. 4.

Twenty-seven new members, all residents of the Belvedere-Tiburon peninsula, attended the first formal meeting to hear an address of welcome by Mrs. Harrison McNear Leppo, president of the senior group, and list of auxiliary projects by Mrs. Fred Drexler, chairman of new branches for the senior group.

Shoe Saving

When shoes become soaked in a shower, stuff them with paper and allow them to dry for several days—away from heat. Then remove mud from leather by sponging with thick dry soap or detergent suds, using a minimum of water. Rinse-wipe with a damp cloth and allow to dry.

Marinites Attend Red Cross Meet

Attending the governor's conference on youth for the community at Long Beach on Tuesday and Wednesday will be Mrs. W. C. Detsch, director of office of educational relations for Marin Red Cross Chapter, Pam Dana and Sally Good, both active members of high school Red Cross, and Daryl Hopkins, chairman of the office of educational relations.

As one of 37 "teaching teams" chosen from the state to present youth service projects to the 1,200 conference delegates, the Marin group will describe and demonstrate community service projects organized and implemented through Marin high school Red Cross—namely, volunteer work with physically handicapped, the mentally retarded and the aged which is carried on at Sonoma State Hospital, Marin Rehabilitation Hospital, Center Medical, Marindale School and Lucas Valley.

"Red Cross Teenaiders" is the name chosen by the young people to describe those working on these projects.

Harry Mathias of Redwood has produced a ten-minute movie of the Marin Aid to Retarded Children summer program and has made numerous still photos for the team to use in their presentation.

Nineteen display posters have been constructed by Dominican students under the direction of Maria Fasal and Betty Jo Brigante, and Bob Wishard of Marin Catholic has worked on brochures.

Pam Dana of Larkspur is a Redwood High senior and has served as a Gray Lady at Sonoma and as a motor service driver. She is chairman of Red Cross at Redwood and vice chairman of the high school Red Cross county council.

Sally Good, a junior at San Rafael High, has worked for four years with MARC summer program, and as a Gray Lady at Sonoma. She is presently serving in this capacity at Hamilton Air Force Base Hospital and is also a member of the council.

Both girls have totals of more than 600 hours of volunteer service.

HAFB General, Wife To Be Feted

FLORENCE DONNELLY

Gen. Conrad Necrason, new commanding general at Hamilton Air Force Base, and his wife will be honored at a barbecue dinner tomorrow night by Gen. and Mrs. Newton Longfellow at the summer home of Erna Longfellow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Franchini. It will be a reunion of friends of years ago as General Necrason was first stationed at Hamilton in 1938.

THE PARADISE DRIVE home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Ballard in Tiburon has been the setting for several recent cocktail parties and dinners. Friday they entertained about 14 guests, mostly neighbors.

Another evening they hosted a party for 16.

THREE HOSTESSES are entertaining at a luncheon Wednesday at the Meadow Club. Guests will be mostly golfers, and bridge will follow the luncheon. About 75 friends will enjoy the hospitality of Mesdames John Woodson, Porter Forcade and Paul Charron.

MRS. FREDERICK ROWLEY is in Nebraska with her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Hough (June Rowley). Doctor Hough is professor of English at the University of Nebraska. The Houghs are awaiting the birth of their fourth child. Mrs. Rowley will remain with them for several weeks after the baby is born.

Fred Rowley will entertain at a stag affair during his wife's absence. He'll stage a Polynesian party at their home in Sonora Court, Tiburon, Wednesday night. He's invited about 20 men friends for a dinner which will be followed by a color and sound motion picture, "The New State of Paradise." It will be presented by Robert Zenk for the Matson Navigation Co. Scenes in the picture were taken in Hawaii, Fiji, Australia and New Zealand.

A WELCOME HOME party was given Sunday night by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Worlund of Sleepy Hollow honoring their daughter, Sharon. The family dinner also celebrated Sharon's 23rd birthday. She and her friend, Nancy White (both girls are TWA hostesses) flew to Europe from New York and toured England, Holland, Austria and Germany.

GUESTS AT the Belvedere Ball, the St. Stephen's Guild annual dinner dance, Dec. 1, will be invited to one of five homes for cocktails at 8 p.m. preceding the dance, which will begin at 9:30.

This year's ball will be held at The Dock Restaurant in Tiburon. Mrs. Leon A. Julian, chairman, announces.

Homes open for the cocktail parties will include those of Dr. and Mrs. William Ferguson, Messrs. and Mesdames Wallace Scott, John Hoefer, Chester Vargas and Merritt Ruddock.

Invitations are in the mail now for the ball.

Corte Madera Club Slates Apron Luncheon

On November 28 at 12:30 p.m. the Corte Madera Women's Improvement Club will hold its traditional Apron Luncheon. Admission to the luncheon will be an apron. There will be a silent auction at which each one will model their own apron. Auctioneer for the event will be Mrs. Harvey Warne.

Prizes will be awarded for the prettiest, the most original and the most practical apron. The proceeds will go to the club's philanthropic work.

Chairman for the affair will be Mrs. Frank Wessel assisted by Mesdames Stanley Schlobohm, Ernest McCutchen and John Conkle. In charge of decorations will be Mesdames Eugene Schlueter and Jack Houser.

The Garden Section of the Corte Madera Club will have a garden planting of bulbs at its Nov. 21 meeting at noon.

The Restrained Look

The strictly tailored look for pint-sized fashion plates is yielding to a decorum expressed through crisp pinafores, restrained trimmings, little lady silhouettes and near-the-face flatery. The pinafore look takes a variety of interpretations, from the classic crisp white apron over a darker dress to the reverse twist of print covering a dress of solid color.

It's All Over --- Novato Crushes San Rafael For Title

COACH OF CHAMPIONS — Marlin Olsen, head coach of the Novato High Hornets, gets the traditional honor last night after his undefeated team captured the 1961 Marin County Athletic League football championship by crunching the San Rafael Bulldogs, 22-0. Hoisting Olsen are quarterback Don Scribner (42), halfback Ron Green (11) and guard George Couch (52). (Jim Kean photos)

NOVATO CELEBRATION — Rooters in the San Rafael stadium, where there was standing room only, celebrate as final gun sounds to give the victory to the Hornets as well as the undisputed MCAL title.

HORNETS CHAMPIONS

Mighty Mac, Cook Spark 22-0 Game

By PAUL MILLER

The black knights of Novato High—led by senior halfback Dennis McCormick — swept into San Rafael last night, took their gold to count of 22-0 from the Bulldogs, and went north again, undefeated champions of the 1961 Marin County Athletic League.

"Mighty Mac" picked up two of the Hornets' three touchdowns, seven of his team's 10 first downs, and racked up a total of 108 yards in total rushing — all in one evening's work. In addition, he was outstanding on defensive play and pushed his colleagues in spirited gesture for four quarters.

The victory — witnessed by a jammed stadium—gave coach Marlin Olsen's Hornet's a 5-0 won-loss record in league play and an 8-1 record for the season. Their closest rivals were the Sir Francis Drake Pirates with a 3-1 count to date.

Hornet tackle John Cook's leadership in both the offensive and defensive line was reminiscent of the old days of what were called "60-minute men." Cook was also responsible for two conversions off his boot and for two additional points on a safety.

WELL CALLED GAME

Hornet quarterback Don Scribner must be credited with a well called game. He saw that McCormick was hot, fed him the leather and ordered him into the right holes. He saw that the Hornet passing game last night was not as successful as good old gravel crunching so he stayed to mother earth. He gambled for some first downs with bookie precision but also punted at the right times. Twice he could have scored on quarterback sneaks, but instead gave the glory to the backs who had worked the ball to the goal area on handoffs from 2 and 7 yards out, in the first and fourth periods, respectively.

Coach Bob Muster's troops gave it all they had to the last gun, but were unable to get their offensive attack, except for some aerial advances, underway. They also suffered from bad hikes, fumbles, and penalties.

IRON DEFENSE

Along with facing the iron defensive wall of Novato, all this resulted in the Bulldogs getting no closer than 36 yards of the Hornet goalline. Standouts in defensive play for the Bulldogs, however, were tackle Chris Yaeger, guard Jack Clark and center Denis Nickel, and quarterback Jack Sovereign, who played shallow defensive back and stopped a number of end sweeps by the Hornets.

Offensive backs Mike Shafer on end runs, and Jack Haney on punt returns did a good job.

Novato's first tally came midway in the first period. McCormick in four successive plays had brought the pigskin from the San Rafael 35 to the 18. Hornet halfback Craig Bond carried for nine more and McCormick drove for five on the next play, then went in with a hand off from Scribner over left guard for six. Cook's PAT kick attempt was blocked.

At the outset of the next quarter San Rafael, after two completed passes by Sovereign to end Bruce McPhail and some yardage pickups by fullback Shafer, were in a second and four situation at the Novato 36, but fumbled and Joe Colfer of Novato recovered. About four minutes later San Rafael after four downs was on its own 12-yard line. Sovereign, in a punt formation, got a bad hike that sailed over his head and into the endzone. He tried desperately to swing out to spare a safety, but Cook was on him like a leopard, making the score 8-0.

SCORING DRIVE

McCormick received the kickoff and returned it to the San Rafael 40. Then he, Bond, and halfback Ron Webster worked the leather to the Bulldog four. From there Mac rode in on the next play on the shirt tail of 210-pound tackle Art Cherry for a TD. Cook booted the PAT. An intercepted pass of Sovereign's in the final seconds of the half by Hornet John Miller kept the Bulldogs from threatening.

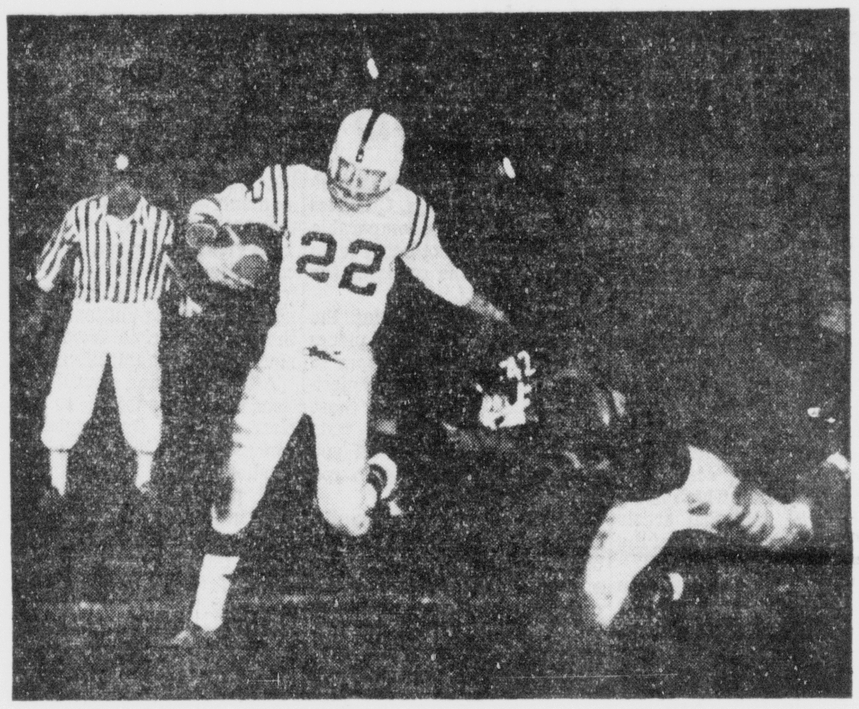

In the final period, the Bulldogs held Novato to four downs, forced them to kick on a fourth down situation from the San Rafael 43. Miller was rushed, but got away a fine kick. In four more downs Sovereign punted from his own 14, but on Novato's first down at the Bulldog 39, San Rafael tackle Tav McTavish recovered a Hornet fumble. The Bulldogs looked as if they were going to move to break the shutout. Sovereign completed a 10 yarder on a beautiful catch by halfback Alan Finley at the 29, but the next pass play was intercepted by Hornet Cliff Pierce's diving catch at the 39. It initiated another Hornet march by McCormick and Scribner. Mac went for a 20-yard pickup on a superbly executed fake pitch-out play that envolved a fine effort on the part of every Novato player and put Mac through a left tackle hole to the San Rafael 33. A Bulldog penalty brought the Hornets, without any work, to the seven, from where Bond on a reverse from Scribner ran around right end for the standup score.

Two minutes later, Hornet coach Olsen and his assistant John Panagakis were deservedly carried off the field in triumph.

It was their team's fifth shutout of the season.

VOODISM — Novato Hornet mascot (Susan Stafford) demonstrates symbolic hanging of a bulldog who after gazing at the Hornet's face looks more scared than hung.

PUNT RETURN — Jack Haney (22), San Rafael halfback is about to be dropped by tackling Novato safety and offensive quarterback Don Scribner (42) after Haney returned a Hornet fourth down punt from about the San Rafael five to the 26.

Terra Linda Clobbered In Season Finale, 39-7

High riding Terra Linda High suffered its first defeat in the last game of the season yesterday, and it was a whopper — 39-7.

A powerhouse junior varsity team from Lafayette called Del Valle threw an alloy forward wall against the Trojans and stacked up 26 points by the half.

Trojan quarterback Dick Schultze kept it from being a shutout when he connected on a 35 yard aerial to Dick Seymone for six in the third period. Jack Edwards conversion boot was good for the extra point.

Del Valle knocked off six more points after the halftime and seven more in the final quarter.

The Lafayette team had scouted Terra Linda thoroughly, was big, fast and well organized.

One Marin observer commented: "De Valle would give this whole league (Marin County Athletic League) fits."

Mrs. Boardman Is Lady Day Winner

Mrs. Helen Boardman won the low net with a 67 yesterday at the Marin Golf and Country Club's ladies guest day.

Mrs. Aubrey Babson and Mrs. Rich Flower both tied for the low gross score with 89s. The hole-in-one competition was grabbed by Mrs. Scott Graham at 47 inches.

Other low scorers were:

Class A — Mrs. William Sparrow, 94-20—74; Mrs. Robert Peterzon, 94-17—77; Mrs. Flower, 89-11—78; Mrs. Babson, 89-10—79.

Class B — Mrs. Ed Abramson, 99-24—75; Mrs. Robert Vannucci, 98-21—77; Mrs. Gordon Wardlaw, 101-21—80; Mrs. Mark Smith, 105-23—82.

Class C — Mrs. Scott Graham, 99-25—74; Mrs. William Wieland, 104-28—76; Mrs. Leo Ross, 108-28—80 and Mrs. Harold Burnell, 107-27—80; Mrs. Alvin Lewis, 107-25—82.

Seals And Blades Clash In S.F. Tonight

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The San Francisco Seals and the Los Angeles Blades, both striving to remain out of fourth place in the Southern Division of the Western Hockey League, clash in the Sports Arena tonight.

The Blades have a record of three wins and nine losses. The Seals are 3-10.

NITSCHKE GETS PASS TO PLAY FOR PACKERS

FT. LEWIS, Wash. (UPI) — PFC Ray Nitschke of the 32nd Division, better known as a linebacker for the Green Bay Packers of the National Football League, has been given a pass and will play for the Packers Sunday against the Chicago Bears, division headquarters said today.

A spokesman for the division said Nitschke will be able to play for the Packers for the rest of the season "unless a game conflicts with his normal Army duties." Nitschke is attached to the division's quartermaster company.

Nitschke was called to active duty earlier this fall along with the rest of the 32nd Division. The division was placed on active status as a part of the nation's military buildup over the Berlin crisis.

49ers, Rams Meet Tomorrow; 50,000 Expected At Coliseum

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Rams, who have not beaten San Francisco in a National Football League game since 1958, will have to jam the 49ers' shotgun attack tomorrow if they are to break the string.

Coach Red Hickey sent word from San Francisco that he will again have three trigger men ready to ride the shotgun in Memorial Coliseum.

This means that John Brodie, Bill Kilmer and Bobby Waters will alternate at quarterback, running and passing from the Hickey-revived version of the short punt formation.

The Rams failed miserably to throttle the weapon in the first league encounter in San Francisco Oct. 8. They were beaten 35-0, with Kilmer, erstwhile local hero at UCLA, doing most of the damage.

Coach Bob Waterfield said the Rams will try new defensive measures. He frankly admitted anything will be an improvement over the basic, loose 4-man defensive line tried the first time.

Les Richter, the Rams' 235-pound linebacker and captain, is ready to play after a week away with injuries.

More than 50,000 are expected for the always lively, usually bitter renewal of hostilites between the teams. The kickoff: 1:35 PST.

After an impressive start this season, San Francisco fired blanks against the Chicago Bears and Pittsburgh and were lucky to gain a 20-20 tie last week with Detroit.

The Rams ended a dismal four-game losing streak, defeating Minnesota, 31-17. Fullbacks Joe Marconi and Tom Wilson, who have ridden the bench most of the year, supplied a potent fourth quarter punch to win the game.

How much action either will see Sunday remains to be seen. Waterfield named his usual starting backfield — quarterback Frank Ryan, Jon Arnett, Dick Bass and Ollie Matson.

Brodie probably will lead off for the 49ers, along with Abe Woodson, R. C. Owens and J. D. Smith.

Hickey also indicated he will rely heavily on still another of his "alphabetical soup" backfield talent, C. R. Roberts.

Unbeaten Alongi Faces Big Test At Garden Tonight

NEW YORK (AP)—Tony Alongi, an unbeaten young heavyweight from Hollywood, Fla., with 27 victories, faces his most important test tonight when he takes on George Logan of Boise, Idaho, at Madison Square Garden.

Alongi, 22, a rangy 6-4, has been brought along slowly under the guidance of Charlies Goldman, Rocky Marciano's old trainer. Young Tony has knocked out 16 opponents.

Logan, 25, is known hereabouts for three losing fights with Tom McNeeley, the Bostonian who challenges Floyd Patterson for the title Dec. 4 in Toronto. Logan's record is 21-5-1.

The fight will be seen on network ABC television starting at 10 p.m. (EST).

Marin Stuns Shasta 28-14 In Big Homecoming Upset

Tars Second In Red Hot League Race

By WILLIAM KRELLE

The College of Marin Tars won their homecoming game with a stunning 28-14 upset over the Shasta Knights in last nights game at Kentfield and are now tied for second place in the Golden Valley Conference.

Dick Read's Tars proved that they were really out to win as they struck early and gave a solid effort through the whole game. In the past games this season Marin has been a second half team but, this contest proved different.

One of the largest crowds of the season was gathered on the Marin side of the stadium to cheer the Tars on to victory.

Shasta went into the game with a league record of two wins and only one defeat and were hot on the tail of league leading Sierra College (3-1). Marin now has a 2 and 2 record in conference play to share second place with Shasta, Napa and Yuba in one of the closest GVC races in many years.

Marin, which has been hampered all season by injuries and lately by ineligibility, had its squad cut from 39 to 25 players. Shasta brought 33 players into the Tars' home and was expected to have distinct speed and manpower advantage.

This advantage did not scare an alert Marin defensive team as the Tars picked off three Knight passes and forced Shasta to lose the ball four times as result of fourth down gambles with only a few yards to go each time.

The offense also looked good as Blum hit his receivers well and the backs ran hard as the Marin line blocked well to open up the big Shasta defensive wall.

MARIN MARCHED

Marin received the opening kickoff and marched from its own 21 to the Shasta 17. On the next play Blum passed to halfback Ron Cole for the game's first touchdown. The conversion kick by Frank Lopez was good, but a penalty against the Tars brought the ball back to the seven where an attempted run was stopped. With less than six minutes gone in the first quarter Marin led 6-0.

Early in the second period Marin halted a Shasta drive on the Tar 29. With a well balanced attack, directed by Blum, the Tars moved the ball to the Knights' 11. On a first down play Blum handed off to Cole who carried around right end for Marin's second score. Blum passed to end Darrel Dietrich for the two-point conversion and Marin led 14-0.

Shasta finally scored on a pass to Leon Rusic for a well executed 76-yard touchdown. The extra point try was unsuccessful as Marin still led 14-6.

SCORING DRIVE

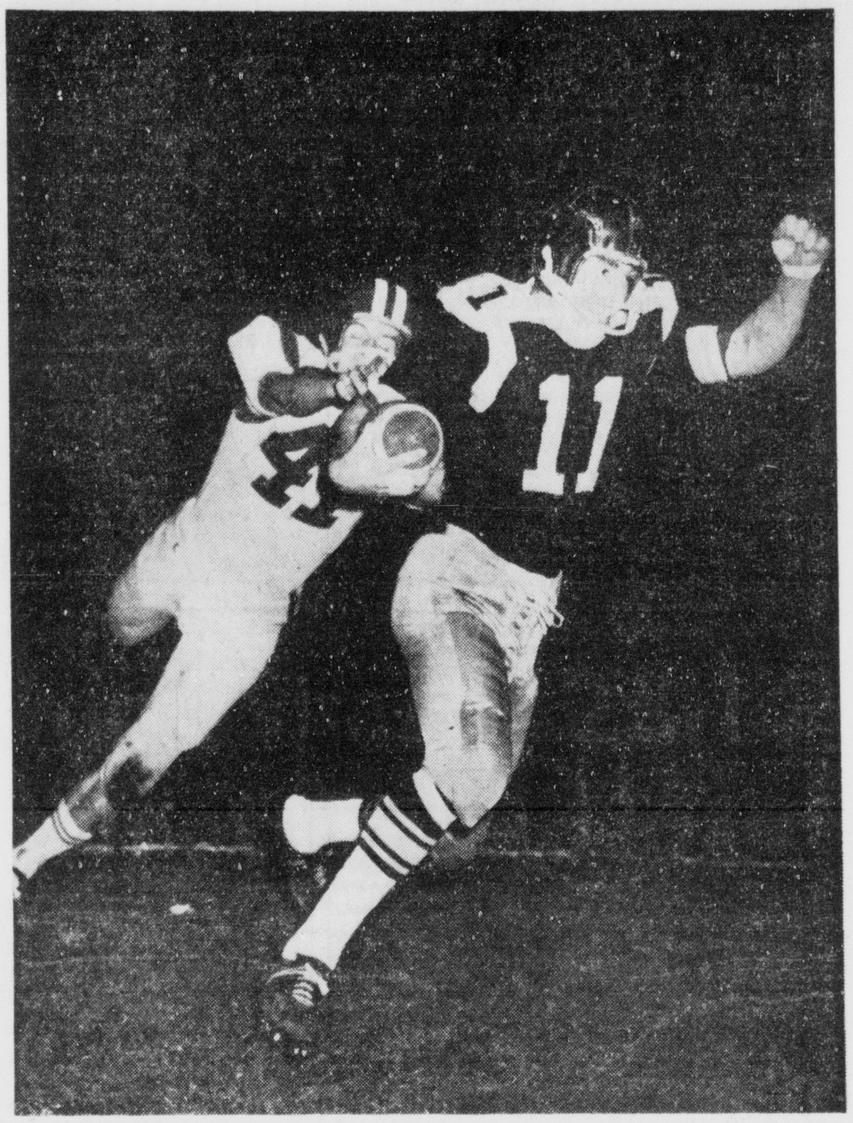

The Mariners began another scoring drive as Cole returned the Knights' kickoff to the Tar 44. Eight plays later, with the ball moved to the Shasta 22, Blum threw a screen pass to fullback Jim Lonsford who ripped off down the sideline for another Tar touchdown. The conversion attempt was unsuccessful as Marin now led 20-6.

Late in the third quarter Shasta got on the scoreboard again. Grant ran four yards around end for the touchdown. Grant also ran over the conversion for the two points. With only three minutes left in the third quarter Marin's lead was narrowed to six points, 20-14.

The Tars returned the kickoff to their own 47, and after one running play had gained nine yards to the Shasta 44, Blum threw long to Cole for the touchdown. The conversion was driven over by halfback Jim Fisher as Marin led 28-14.

In the final period neither team could get a scoring drive going. Marin had intercepted a Knight pass as the gun sounded to end the game.

Tar coach Read, blushing with pride for his players, said it was the best "offensive effort of the year."

Runnerup Spot At Stake In Drake-Tam Contest Tonight

The Sir Francis Drake Pirates and the Tamalpais Indians are going to end the 1961 Marin County Athletic League season in a real sweat shop tonight at Kentfield.

The game will be the last one in the 1961 loop, and is expected to be a tougher affair than each team anticipated at the outset of the season. In addition, it—as all the Tam School District contests—will be a good old rivalry game.

Both teams were respected at the beginning of the season but neither were considered crack outfits. But now Drake, which until last night—was in contention with Novato for the MCAL crown, will be fighting to hold position for runner-up spot. And the Indians on the other hand, will be after a share of that second place cup.

DRAKE SHARP

Drake is as sharp as ever, and Tamalpais, plagued by an over abundance of injuries, is just now getting its key players, recently off the injured list, back in the grind of it all. Head Pirate coach Bob Franceschini is of course aware that his club is at its peak and has been for a month. But he also knows that the Indians are now too at the summit, and it's going to be a real war tonight.

Franceschini said the Pirates are going to keep tabs on Indian halfback Warren Domino. "We feel we can contain the other backs with our own speed if they try to break loose, but it won't be so assured as far as Domino is concerned." Another brave Drake had better watch is Paul Farren, a regular guard who will start at fullback.

The Hub coach said his backs, Rich Bottini and Tom Kolbe, are healthy as is the rest of the squad (those not on the early injury list). Both backs had a good week of practice and looked good in scrimmages.

TOUGH GAME

Head Tam coach Jim Hanretty said it's going to be the Indians' "toughest league game" except for the Novato contest. In addition, the Mill Valley mentor feels it will be "a real test" for his defensive unit. He expressed respect for Drake's shifty, speedy back, Bottini, and for the speed of the Pirate outfit in general.

Hanretty figured it would be restricted mostly to a ground battle. "Both our passing and theirs have been sputtering this season," he said.

The Indians will be minus end Steve Long, and guard Mickey Johnson is a doubtful starter because of illness this week. Junior varsity end Jim Durbin will replace Long.

The only change over last week's starting lineup for the Pirates will be at halfback. This week Tom Tanzi will get the nod in place of Jim Sannar.

Other Drake starters: quarterback Hamish Tyler, halfback Bottini, fullback Kolbe, ends Laddie Richardson and Larry Kline, guards Lloyd Stasiowski and Jim Moreno, tackles Ben Ongaro and Scott Kelly and center Don O'Brien.

Tam starters: quarterback Tex Hamilton, halfbacks Domino and Rich Hamilton, fullback Paul Farren, ends Brian Laurie and Art Foster, tackles Elmer Collett and Greg Taylor, guards Mickey Johnston (or possibly Ted and Fred Fellows) and center Pete Hindley.

Tennis Gets Better

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—When Pete Lyman was a member of the 1947 University of Rochester tennis team, he wasn't good enough to win a letter.

His game improved rapidly, however, after he was graduated. He now is a ranking amateur in the Northeast and is consistently the Rochester city men's champion.

He became the University of Rochester tennis coach six seasons ago, and his teams have posted a composite 41-11 record. The 1961 team had an 8-0 record, the first unbeaten tennis team since the university added tennis to its athletic program in 1932.

Raiders Try To Knock Titans Out Of AFL Race

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

New York's Titans, still in the thick of the race for the Eastern Division championship, meet Oakland at New York tonight to get a busy and vital weekend on the way in the American Football League.

The Titans can hang close if they beat the Raiders because they are only one game out of first place at the present time.

The Eastern Division leaders —Boston and Houston — clash at Houston tomorrow afternoon in one of the big battles of the season. Boston is only a half-game to the good over Houston, the defending champion.

The Western Division has two important games Sunday. The No. 1 contest matches San Diego, unbeaten leader of the division, with Denver.

San Diego can take the Western Division championship by whipping the six-time losers or it can lose and still capture the title in the event second-place Dallas loses to Buffalo at Dallas.

Oakland is running last in the Western Division but the Raiders have just won a game —they beat Buffalo 31-22 last Sunday. With Tom Flores doing the throwing, the Raiders just might wind up New York's hopes of figuring in the championship. While the Titans are now in fair shape to make a run for it, a loss would just about spell finis to their ambitions since Boston and Houston are in such close contention for first place.

Where Did Saints' Magic Go? Have Lost 4 In Row

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The San Francisco Saints, who opened the American Basketball League season with two victories and now have lost four of their last five games, have a week to figure out where the magic went.

The Cleveland Pipers, with Roger Taylor setting the pace, beat the Saints 97-88 last night at the Cow Palace. The Saints don't play again until Friday night at Chicago.

Coach Phil Woolpert has plenty of work planned for the San Franciscans, who disappointed a crowd of 7,192. It was the largest house they've played before.

Taylor's 19 points led a well balanced Cleveland attack. The Pipers led by six at the quarter and 10 at halftime. The visitors were 13 in front after three quarters and jumped out to a 17-point lead in the final period.

Then the Saints finally got hot and zoomed back to within three points of Cleveland. But Taylor sank two clutch baskets at that point and, for the Saint fans, it was all over.

It Will Be Called Dodger Stadium

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The $16 million stadium of the Los Angeles Dodgers now nearing completion in the Chavez Ravine will be known as—what else?—Dodger Stadium.

The Dodgers announced yesterday, and said they had given serious consideration to many other suggestions.

One problem: The Los Angeles Angels of the American League will lease the stadium, and the Dodgers aren't certain the Angeles will acknowledge the park as Dodger Stadium.

Rose Bowl Bid Could Go To 1 Of 30 Teams

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The Big Five has a list of 30 names under consideration for a Rose Bowl bid, according to Tom Hamilton, executive director of the AAWU.

He said yesterday that he already has sent out "feelers" to several teams to see if they would be interested in playing in the Pasadena oval.

"But we definitely have made no commitment to any one team and certainly wouldn't do so this early in the campaign," he added.

"We inaugurated a policy more than a year ago of looking for the best team, whether it was in the Big Ten or some other section of the country," he explained. "The Big Ten, at that time, did not want to sign an agreement."

The Big Ten teams are eligible still to participate in the Rose Bowl, and some of the clubs want to make the trip. But Ohio State and Minnesota leading the conference, are considered doubtful starters.

"Our policy is to choose an outstanding team from any part of the nation," he said.

Among teams outside the Big Ten reported under consideration are Alabama and Georgia Tech. High-ranked clubs such as Mississippi and Louisiana State are out of contention because of their segregation policies.

UCLA's Topic Of Scorn Wins Games

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The critics had best take another look at the UCLA aerial arm, the topic of scorn all season.

The Bruins hardly put on an aerial circus as they defeated Texas Christian 28-7 last night but their main throwers, tailbacks Bobby Smith and Mike Haffner, had a perfect evening.

Throwing only in strategic situations, Smith completed 3-for-3 for 90 yards, including one for 63 yards to Kermit Alexander for the first UCLA touchdown. Haffner was 2-for-2 for 40 yards.

On the ground, UCLA gained 206 yards. Haffner accounted for 83 in 10 carries and Smith 54 in 13.

TCU Coach Abe Martin, whose team tied Ohio State 7-7. (UCLA lost to the Buckeyes 13-3), observed:

"I always thought the Bruins were the equal of Ohio State and I still do."

What about the Bruins' passing?

Said Martin: "We didn't expect the Bruins to pass as much as they did."

Invite TWO Outside Teams To Rose Bowl, Big 5 Advised

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — From out of Milwaukee yesterday came fighting words for west coast football fans.

Sports editor Lloyd Larson of the Milwaukee Sentinel said it might be well for the Athletic Association of Western Universities to invite two outside teams to play in the Rose Bowl.

Larson cited the records of the Big Five and said such action might be "in the best interests of the Rose Bowl program."

Larson made his remarks in a column concerning the Big Five's tie-up with the Big Ten in the Rose Bowl.

He said the AAWU is slyly telling Ohio State and Minnesota not to build up hopes too high because "the coast group can get along without them and the rest of the Big Ten very well."

Larson said the conference is "undoubtedly miffed" because the Big Ten refused to renew its Rose Bowl pact last year and "will do so now by only a bare majority vote.

"Giving anybody the back of the hand is a questionable gesture on the part of teams with records like those in the Big Five to date," he said.

UCLA and Southern California, the two top Rose Bowl candidates, have records of 6-2 and 3-3-1 respectively.

"In the best interests of the total Rose Bowl program," he said, "it might be well to invite TWO outside teams to put on the football part of the show."

Marin Ski Club Will Show Annual Movie Wednesday

The Marin Ski Club will show its annual ski movie next Wednesday at the Fairfax Theater in Fairfax at 6:50 and again at 8:50 p.m.

This year's film is entitled "High Skis." It will be color and personally narrated by Dick Barrymore. "High Skis" is a film tour of "adventure, travel and humor through the United States, Canada, New Zealand, Squaw Valley, Sun Valley, Alta, Aspen and other ski areas of the world, said Barrymore.

Appearing in the film will be skiers Christian Pravda, Ted Johnson, and Pepe Granshammer.

"This years movie is one of the finest ski adventures ever filmed," said Dean Greenstreet, vice president of the Marin Club.

Admission tickets ($1.50) are on sale at San Rafael Sporting Goods.

San Anselmo '9' Try For 6th Win

The San Anselmo Merchants — undefeated in five outings of the San Francisco AAA semi-professional winter baseball league — will try for their sixth victory tomorrow against the Managua Club of San Francisco.

Mino Genunianni will be the starting hurler for the Merchants in the 1 p.m. contest at Memorial Park in San Anselmo.

Elgin Baylor Called To Active Duty

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The 6th Army has called up Elgin Baylor for active duty, riddling the chances of the Los Angeles Lakers to bring a National Basketball Association championship to their new home.

An Army spokesman at San Francisco said last night that Baylor's orders had been mailed to him in Los Angeles. He said that Baylor probably would have to report to active duty in about a month.

Baylor said he hasn't received the orders. His coach, Fred Schaus, was stunned by the announcement.

Baylor, who is married and has one child, has served six months of reserve training.

The Lakers have compiled a 9-2 record in the NBA and seemed headed for a Western Division title.

Baylor is the first major professional basketball star to be called up. Many of the leading players in the game are not eligible for military service because they exceed the height limit of 6 feet, 6 inches.

Baylor, 6-5 and weighing 230, is generally recognized as one of the greatest all-around players in the history of professional basketball. A product of Seattle University, he was an instant success in the tough NBA. He holds the league record of 71 points in a single game and is an outstanding rebounder and playmaker.

Whitney Reed Upset

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP) — Roland Barnes of Brazil upset top-seeded Whitney Reed of Alameda, Calif. 6-2, 6-4, 2-6, 6-4 in the International Tennis Tournament today. Barnes is seeded third.

Boston Coach Will Continue Protests Of Bad Treatment

BOSTON (AP) — Slapped with a $200 fine and a warning by the National Basketball Association, Boston Coach Red Auerbach today says he'll continue to protest to the officials if he feels justified.

NBA President Maurice Podoloff announced the fine for "gross misconduct" at the Boston-Detroit game in Philadelphia Thursday night. He said Auerbach would be suspended for three games the next time he is ejected from a contest.

Rookie referee Joe Gushue's technical foul call against the champion Celtics had touched off the incident.

"I was protecting my ball players and if Bob Cousy gets the treatment he received in Philadelphia again I'll do it all over," Auerbach said.

Auerbach said Gushue "kept watching me and not the game. Cousy, meanwhile, was getting a real going over, so much so that he finally protested and when he did so this Gushue hit him with a technical.

"I jumped up and before I could say a word, bang—a technical for me."

Neves On 4 Winners

SAN BRUNO (AP) — Ralph Neves rode four winners at Tanforan yesterday boosting his season record to 12 victories in 41 starts.

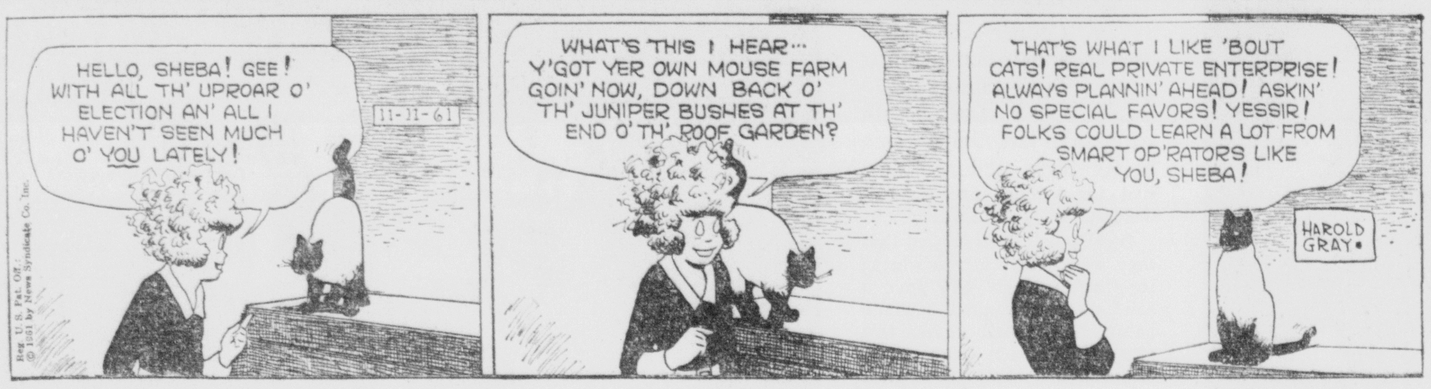

Neves won on Shoo-Me ($5.60) in the first race, Knee Deep ($4.80) in the second, Peggy O'Neill ($3.60) in the third and Black Bully ($4) in the seventh. The daily double paid $13.80.

Macdan ($10.40) took the feature.

THERE OUGHTA BE A LAW

ALMANAC

Today is Saturday, Nov. 11, the 315th day of the year with 50 more to follow in 1961. Today is Veterans Day.

The moon is approaching its first quarter.

The morning stars are Mercury and Venus.

The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1889, Washington became the 42nd state admitted to the Union.

In 1918, World War I ended with the signing of an armistice between the Allied and central powers in a railway car in France.

In 1933, the first "great black blizzard" swept over the Great Plains leaving dust covered devastation and terror in its wake.

In 1957, Jamaica became the first British West Indian colony to achieve internal self government.

A thought for the day: American writer William Woodward said: "The turning point of lives are not the great moments. The real crises are often concealed in occurences so trivial in appearance that they pass unobserved."

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

The Appearance Of A Guess Might Be Very Deceptive

Our problem for the week has been whether to play the king or the jack when you need only one trick in the suit. It's not always clear to the opponents whether or not you have such a problem.

Opening lead — ♣ 2

It was a silly slam contract. South should bid four notrump at his second turn to ask how many aces his partner had. North would bid five diamonds (showing only one ace) and South would sign off safely at five hearts.

But South did bid the slam, and West led a club. Sniff if you must, but play the hand.

South put up dummy's king of clubs, and East won with the ace. And now East foolishly returned a club, thinking it was more likely that his partner had a queen than an ace.

South won the club, drew trumps and ran the spades to get rid of his diamonds. The difference between making the slam and going down one was 1,530 points.

SHOULD HAVE KNOWN: East should have known that South had the queen of clubs. For this reason the only hope was to return a diamond at the second trick.

Assume that South does not hold the queen of clubs. What would he play from the dummy at the first trick? South would not assume that West was underleading the ace of clubs, so he would naturally play the jack of clubs from dummy rather than the king. South's failure to play the jack of clubs from dummy made it clear that he held the queen in his own hand.

The appearance of a guess is not proof that a guess exists. Put yourself in your opponent's place to test the situation.

DAILY QUESTION: Partner opens with one heart, and the next player passes. You hold:

♠ 10 6 5 2
♦ 9 6 5 3 2
♣ A 7 3

What do you say?

Answer: Pass. The best way to stay out of trouble is to pass worthless hands.

FOOTBALL TONIGHT
KFRC—S. F. State - Sacramento State, 7:55 p.m.

"Each . . . decently habited . . ."

If you were to study the "rules and regulations" or canons of the Episcopal Church — and the Book of Common Prayer — you will find that the words "decently habited" are all you'll find relating to the dress of Episcopal Clergymen.

There, in few words, is the answer to the question, "Why do your clergy have to dress differently from lay people?"

They don't have to. Episcopalians don't think of it in that way. Wearing of weekday clerical dress and of service vestments is ancient tradition. We think of it as the "uniform of God's ministers" — the submergence of the individual in the office he or she fills. Acolytes, lay readers and choir members are "vested" when they take part in an Episcopal service. It is democratic.

The humblest deacon, just out of seminary, and the rector of the largest parish in the country are level as servants of God in clericals or vestments.

The Episcopal Church is one of the most democratic institutions in the United States. In fact, it is governed jointly by a House of Bishops and a House of Clerical and Lay delegates. This is similar to our own Senate and House of Representatives.

You'll like the democratic "feel" of the Episcopal Church. Won't you come to church with us tomorrow in the Episcopal Church near you?

FLAG RIPPER HELD

Jesus Farias Iglesias, 28, a Mexican national from Guadalajara, waits to be booked in Los Angeles on suspicion of disturbing the peace. Two men made a citizen's arrest of him on historic Olvera Street because, they said, he pulled A U.S. flag from its pole and ripped it. Police said Iglesias told them he was "angry because the U. S. had been molesting Mexican nationals and beating Mexicans who come to this country." (AP Wirephoto)

Nine Students Flying South To Conference

Nine Marin students will fly to Long Beach tomorrow night to attend the Governor's Conference on Youth Monday and Tuesday. About 2,000 young men and women from throughout the state will attend.

Those to attend from Marin are:

Lynda Morgan of 56 Gregory, Fairfax, a Sir Francis Drake High School student; Steve Detsch of 203 Wickham, Mill Valley, Tamalpais High School; Art Foster of Marin City, Tamalpais High; Ron Kaldor of 12 Via Cheparro, Greenbrae, Redwood High; Suzanne Scott of 250 Monte Vista, Larkspur, College of Marin; Steve James of Tomales, Tomales High; Sue Richmond of 56 Elena, San Rafael, Terra Linda High; Sally Good of San Rafael High, and Pam Dana of 2 Shady Lane, Corte Madera, Redwood High. Misses Good and Dana are Red Cross team members.

The young people will be accompanied on the trip by Robert Prather of Tamalpais High School District, Mrs. Marjorie Detsch of the American Red Cross, Daryl Hopkins of the Marin County Superintendent's office, and Mrs. Jacqueline Smith, director of the Marin City project of the Marin Council of Community Services.

Rev. Cunningham Will Be Speaker

Rev. John Cunningham of Marin Catholic High School will be the breakfast speaker for the Holy Name Society of St. Anselm's Parish, San Anselmo, tomorrow morning, following the group's attendance of eight o'clock Mass and Communion for deceased members of the Society.

Joseph Murray, President of the St. Anselm's group, asks all men and high school boys of the Parish to attend. Breakfast will be served by the Ladies' Sodality at St. Anselm's schools' new auditorium.

Guest Will Be At Aldersgate

Dr. Harland Hogue, Pacific School of Religion professor, Berkeley, will be the guest speaker tomorrow at the 9:30 a.m. worship service of the Terra Linda Methodist Church, now called the Aldersgate Church.

Services will be held in the Terra Linda Community Building, Del Ganado Road. Pastor is Rev. H. A. Tillinghast Jr.

'Iron Curtain' Talk

Elizabeth Role, a graduate of the University of Moscow and a former Russian lawyer, now a resident of Novato, will speak on "Life Behind the Iron Curtain" at a tea at the Grace Lutheran Church in Novato tomorrow at 4 p.m.

Yesterday's Answer

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation

B K W G I Q W C Q T K N M K A J B I Q M Z U J Y C K T W Y O J — L K J W X T N G J.

Yesterday's Cryptoquote: THE FINGER THAT TURNS THE DIAL RULES THE AIR—DURANT.

Philippine Priest Speaks Tomorrow At St. Paul's

St. Paul's Episcopal Church, San Rafael, will have as its guest speaker tomorrow Rev. Alejandre R. Tauli, a priest of the Philippine Independent Church.

Father Tauli is assistant at the Epiphany Mission, La Trinidad, Benguet Mountain Province, and is in charge of College Work among Episcopalians in Baguio City, the summer capital of the Philippines.

He is a graduate of St. Andrew's Seminary, Manilla, where he received his Bachelor of Theology degree "magna cum laude" in 1951. In late 1941, he was imprisoned by the Japanese while a student at the University of the Philippines, and after his release served as a secret agent for the Philippine guerrilla forces.

Father Tauli was a recent clerical deputy to the General Convention of the Episcopal Church where the Philippine Independent Church was brought into full Communion with the Episcopal Church in this country.

He will preach at both 9 and 11 a.m. services at St. Paul's.

Christian Science Theme On Immortals

The indestructible relationship of God and man will be explained at Christian Science services tomorrow in a Lesson-Sermon on the subject "Mortals and Immortals."

These words of Paul will be included in the readings from the Bible: "The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together." (Rom. 8.)

1961 BUICK
SPECIAL
$2,595

Here's a real buy—it's a little '61 Buick compact 4-dr. Special deluxe that we've used here at the company during 1961.

It sells new for just over $3100 but you can buy this one for $2595 with a full new car guarantee of one year and 12,000 miles—just like a brand new one.

It's two tone blue with matching custom interior. This little car has only 7,000 miles on it and hasn't a scratch, dent or show of wear anywhere. It's fully equipped with dynaflow, radio, heater, EZI glass, and brand new white wall tires that we just installed so as to make this car as close to new as possible. It's never been licensed so you would be the first owner of record.

It burns regular gas and gets exceptional mileage for a car that has as much performance as this one has.
